

True Father: Once you have true love in your hands, you have absolutely everything else in the universe

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father:

True Father: "Human beings are born to bear the fruit of love on earth. The purpose for which we live on earth is to bear the fruit of love that God desires to see. That is why life on earth is brief. It is just one season, a short time." [1]

We do not have too much time on earth. That is one more reason why we need to focus on what is most important, on what has the highest value. And that is true love:

True Father: "Why are you born? To be responsible for true love. Only in true love can you find true value. Nothing else, not money, possessions, power or knowledge, is of value." [2]

Other things may also have some value, but that value cannot be compared at all with the value of true love:

True Father: "Once you have true love in your hands, you have absolutely everything else in the universe." [3]

The value of true love is unimaginable. At the time when we pass into the spiritual world, we leave everything behind. However, the treasure of true love that we build up during our lives on earth, is what goes with us to the next world. The more we advance in love during our life on earth, the more successful our life is:

True Father: "The success or failure of our lives depends on how much love we pack into those 80 years that are given to us." [4]

Therefore we need to focus on genuinely loving all people that we encounter, without any exception. Investing heart into other people should always be on the forefront of our mind. That means we need to always try to plant the seeds of love and kindness in the people we meet. We need to embrace everyone with our heart, no matter who that person is, no matter what that person thinks or does. With other words, our love has to be genuine, unconditional and unchanging. It cannot exclude anyone, and it can never stop.

It is not good enough to "love" people only so that they do what we want. It is not good enough if we stop "loving" them if they do something else.

That kind of "love" is not true love, and it will not make our hearts advance towards perfecting our love. Such love is based on calculation, on some agenda. It is acting more from the head than from the heart. We need to rise above that. If our love is based on calculation or agenda, then it is not true love. Then we are not focused on love, but rather on some agenda:

True Father: "Your concern should be how to give and how to give well. As for the return to you, you must trust in God. He will take care of it." [5]

If we focus on trying to express the unconditional heart of God towards everyone we meet, then we are giving well. Then God can work. And we become attractive people. We become giants of love, who can make things happen by the power of love, by the power of God.

If we develop such love, we ourselves become free. Our true self emerges. We are not depending anymore on how others respond, if they do what we wish or not. We just keep loving everyone, embracing and uplifting them, having compassion with them, no matter what, knowing that such love will create success on all levels.

If however we "love" people only so that they do what we want them to do, then we are not truly loving. Then we are not attracting them with the power of heart. We might think it is love, but people will not perceive it as such. They will be put off, because they do not feel unconditionally embraced and accepted. They will notice that our love is not all-embracing, but limited and based on agenda. They would not see God in us. They would not experience the heart and love of God through us.

Therefore in all situations we need to train our heart with people, focus on investing heart, kindness and goodness into everyone, without ceasing or wavering, no matter if they act and think as we wish or not. Then we will advance towards perfecting our love and can really move people:

True Father: "The FIRST STEP in witnessing is to think, "I myself must become PERFECT." Then you will be able to give GOODNESS to other people." [6]

Our focus must be to advance in heart, by loving with true love, without any calculation or agenda. Our focus must be to love everyone unconditionally and unceasingly. Then we can make the biggest difference, because of the power of true love and because of the power of God.
