

True Father: The only thing that matters is whether you have the heart of heaven

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters,

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Heung Jin Nim [in the spiritual world]:

True Father: "I never go out and say: "I am Abel, so you must serve me." There is no such phrase in the history of restoration. God does not want that." [1]

"Abel" is the one who is closer to God than others, who has more heart than others, who resonates with the heart and love of God and True Parents more than others. The one who has more heart and love than another person, is "Abel" to this person:

True Father: "Think highly of a life armed with heart. Those who have more heart than me are Abels to me." [2]

The more we resonate with the heart of God, the more we want to love, forgive, embrace, uplift and help others, just as God and True Parents want.

Heung Jin Nim: " I love you. I want to serve you. I want to help you. I do not want to be your master." [3]

People with true love want to be a blessing for others. They do not want to be masters or lords over others, expecting service from them. Such thinking is far from the parental heart and does not win the heart of people:

True Father: "One of the major reasons that our foreign missions have not improved or really developed is because of this wrong concept and attitude – thinking that your people [the people in your nation] have to follow and respect you." [1]

We need to exercise our heart and train ourselves to treat people with true parental heart, no matter who they may be:

True Father: " You have to be able to make others feel as if they were children embraced in the bosom of their parent when they are consulting you." [4]

If we train ourselves in that way, then we are contributing greatly to the providence:

True Father: "This is the law of recreation -- simply to win the heart of people."

To win the heart of people we need to develop the parental heart, that only wants to embrace, forgive, love and uplift:

True Father: "Children of filial piety are those who feel a parental heart. It doesn't matter what worldly knowledge or position you have. The only thing that matters is whether you have the heart of heaven." [5]

We need to develop such a parental heart for all people of the world:

True Mother: "When you live your life as a true child who resembles the True Parents, you will understand and feel that other people are not strangers but your brothers and sisters..." [6]

If we strive to treat everyone in the world with true parental love, we will not only move the heart of people, but also God's heart.

Love from Bruno
