

True Father: I want you to be subject with no one forcing you to do anything!

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother, Sun Jin Nim and Heung Jin Nim [in the spiritual world]:

True Father: "Jesus did not teach the people through knowledge. His teaching was much deeper than that. Certainly he was not exhibiting wealth to mankind. Simply said, he was showing the way to heaven. What was the way that Jesus went? Can we go there by displaying power or wealth or knowledge? No, none of these play an essential role. The only crucial thing is to sacrifice oneself and establish true love." [1]

Only through more and more people developing a heart of true love will the Kingdom of God be established. True love is the essence of God, and it is therefore the essence of God's ideal world as well. So the ideal world is the world where everyone develops a heart of true parental love in his or her life time.

Since true love got lost at the time of the fall, God's Kingdom can only come about through the restoration of true love:

Heung Jin Nim: "The battle plan is the restoration of love, true love." [2]

We need to become people with a new heart. This is what God and True Parents want to see. To get us there is the mission of True Parents:

True Father: " With the Principle or by the Principle, my mission is to make new hearts, new persons." [3]

True Father wants to "make" new hearts, new people, but obviously God and True Parents cannot just do it for us.

It is our job to develop our heart. We need to become subject and take initiative in this field:

True Father: " I want you to become subject and out of your own desire take the initiative with no one forcing you to do anything... I never want to feel that you are just following my instructions but rather that you have really perfected yourself in the image of God on your own initiative." [4]

The one who takes initiative is subject. We have to be a subject when it comes to our own growth of heart. We need to develop our heart, make it new, every day:

Sun Jin Nim: "We must grow and become true sons and daughters equipped with clear vision and a new heart." [5]

How do we do that? First we need to realize how crucial heartistic growth is for us. At the same time we need to keep this heartistic growth at the forefront of our mind. This needs training, because it is easy to get lost in other things, forgetting to put heartistic growth first in all encounters with people. It is so easy to get distracted by all kinds of situations, and then soon the fallen nature raises its head again.

Then we might get frustrated with ourselves. We might think we are not enough and give up, thinking this is all too much for us. Instead of that, we need to learn from the situation, analyze it and determine to not repeat the mistake. Then even failures become fertilizer for our growth.

And looking back, we will see how we progressed, how we can manage to keep loving in situations where previously we got almost mad with certain people. And we may even wonder how we got there. And we will realize that it was our consistency, our desire to advance, that got us there. And this will give us the strength to go for even higher levels of love in spite of all the failures that may happen along the way.

To grow faster and get the necessary guidance, we can always call on the experts of love in the spiritual world:

Heung Jin Nim: " I will teach you how to love. I am the professor of love. I will teach you how to love. If you ask me, I will teach you. But if you do not ask, I will not come." [6]

If we use this help while taking initiative in the field of true love, we will become manifestations of God's love:

Sun Jin Nim: " She [True Mother] is calling upon all of us to arise as champions of peace, to become manifestations of Heavenly Parent's love and truth so that together we can usher in a new world of lasting peace and prosperity for the whole human family and creation." [7]
