

True Mother: One unified world of peace is really not so far away

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Heung Jin Nim [in the spiritual world]:

Heung Jin Nim: "When you love each other, when you truly can learn to love, this is the testimony that nobody can dispute. Nobody can accuse you if you love them. If you love them first, then they can receive." [1]

To become people in the image of God, we need to learn to love the way God does. We have to learn true parental love. Such love does not wait to be loved first, but loves first and unconditionally. It never stops, no matter what the response is, no matter if there is a response or not:

True Father: "God's love does not say, "You must first of all love me!" God's love says, "I will first of all love you!" [2]

Heung Jin Nim: "Being unconditional means not to expect any reward. You can only grow when you demonstrate unconditional sacrifice and thus fulfill your portion of responsibility... Do you love one another unconditionally or do you seek some kind of payment in return? Some people think, "I loved you, why don't you love me?" or "I gave you a present, why don't you give me one too?" or "You do not talk to me, I won't talk to you either." This is almost a formula of how people think, yet it is one of the main problems in man." [3]

Being unconditional makes life much less complicated and protects us from unnecessary stress and struggle, because it attracts God's blessing:

True Father: "I give and forget. That is how I live. It's that simple. My life seems very hectic and complicated, but it always comes back to being simple. Nothing is complicated. Wherever I am, everything just fits right. Perfectly right!" [4]

True Parents are over and over again emphasizing the importance of unconditional giving. For a good reason:

True Father: "What is the mainstream concept? You must invest and forget. You must forget. I really, really ask you, so you must do it because of God and True Parents." [4a]

True Mother: "God's true love is love that forgets it has invested, so it invests again and again and again. If the memory of giving remains, then love cannot flow freely and endlessly. Because love moves endlessly, one cannot hold onto the memory of having given. Even if one gives again, love continues to flow because the memory of giving does not remain." [5]

True Mother: "Throughout his life, Jesus never said he wanted to receive love. Rather he said he came to serve, and that he would love even his enemies.

Without that kind of love, we cannot find the origin of peace; and without the origin of peace, we cannot establish a world of peace. The world of peace can never come to exist as long as we focus only on receiving love." [6]

Peace starts with us. It starts in our hearts, by us becoming people of unconditional love, who want to channel God's unconditional love to God's children, no matter who they are. This kind of love will bring about the ideal world of God's dream. It will overcome all evil and create one worldwide family, with God and God's love in the heart of everyone. Such a world is not far away, but it depends on how fast we develop our love:

True Mother: "Please be the heroes of this noble task -- one unified world of peace is really not so far away. By practicing true love and living for the sake of others we build the heavenly kingdom on earth." [7]
