

True Father: I do not wait for God's command

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, and True Mother:

True Father: "The more one invests without expecting a direct return, the higher one can rise as a patriot, a saint, and a divine son or daughter of God." [1]

Investing into people and loving them should be for the sake of these people, and not because we expect some reward from them. If we would expect some reward, then our investing would stop the moment we realize that there is no reward in sight. There is certainly no reward in sight, if people do not respond to our investing and loving, if they ignore us, do not appreciate us or even reject us. Or if they are even hostile towards us.

In such situations, unconditional, true love is able to forgive and to continue, because it does not expect anything in return in the first place. It is just interested in loving and being a blessing to others, no matter who these others are and how they respond.

The more we nurture such a heart, the more are we in line with God's heart, and we become divine people:

True Father: "If you are ready to receive nothing in return then you become like God, because God is always giving out love with His whole being, getting nothing in return. That is the point where godliness starts." [2]

Godliness starts when we stop looking for love from others, but rather are interested in giving love to them, no matter if they love us or not:

True Mother: "The world of peace can never come to exist as long as we focus only on receiving love." [3]

Our focus has to be on giving love, on investing rather than on receiving.

The question remains, how and where to invest. Even more important is the question with what motivation our investing should be done. Are we investing out of compassion? Are we investing to grow in heart? Or is God's dream of an ideal world our own dream and are we investing with the constant thought of wanting to support the providence of God, of wanting to help God and True Parents to save the world from evil?

To save the whole world is the constant thought and motivation of God and True Parents. Therefore they are owners of the providence. They live for the providence.

If we nurture that same heart, then we, too, become owners of the providence, and then everything we do, all our investing, is for the sake of world salvation. That is the highest motivation we can have, and if this becomes our motivation, then we are completely in line with the heart of God and True Parents. Then we are not just followers, but true sons and daughters, owners of the providence, who understand the heart of their parents and have the same way of thinking and the same dream and motivation as them:

True Father: "Be not just a follower, not just a receiver of the command, but be one with God, one with Christ." [4]

True Father: "I do not wait for God's command. I am always busy, always tense, always impatient to do things. If you have that attitude you don't have to pray. What you are thinking and doing is more than prayer and you are in a position to have realized the prayer." [5]

True sons and daughters of God, who we are supposed to be or become, make the dream of God and True Parents their own and think all the time about how to support God's providence in the most effective way. We should never think that we are too insignificant to do that.. By aligning with the heart of God and True Parents we become central people in God's providence, who can make a big difference. Through such people God can exercise His power in this world and God's dream will become true very soon:

True Mother: "You were determined to love and respect True Parents throughout their lives, but were you also determined to achieve their dreams?" [6]

We have to make their heart, motivation and dreams our own. Then nothing can stop us from making a big difference in God's providence. Then nothing will stop us from attracting big blessings in our life from God, in one way or another. Because God will be highly excited and inspired.

Love from Bruno
