

True Father: Just give and give and give until their hearts melt

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters,

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father and True Mother:

True Father: "Even though Abel has paved his own way, he cannot stand before God unless he totally wins over Cain. Abel should bring his enemy with him. He should not attack his enemy; rather, he should lead his enemy and bring his enemy with him." [1]

We may have great faith in God. We may pray to God often. We may have done great things for God, even pioneer work. We may have done many sacrifices.

Something, however, is missing in this equation. And that is our level of love towards people, including those that oppose us. We cannot claim to love God while not loving the people of the world the way God does, with an unconditional and unchanging love.

By making effort to love the people we meet, with genuine love, we grow in heart, and at the same time we attract other people and have a good influence on them. In this way we are leading them closer to God and True Parents, closer to fulfilling their own purpose of life.

We cannot expect others to just "follow" us just because we know the Divine Principle. We need to win their heart, even the heart of those that do not like us:

True Father: "The world abounds with untruthful love and false teaching, so people are skeptical and will not trust you right away. They have never seen true love or tasted genuine truth, so it's only natural that they not trust you. You have to penetrate their trust one level at a time, gradually winning their hearts, but it takes time and real effort and love to do it.

I want you to have concern and pity for those people who fiercely reject you because they are the people whose hearts have been hurt deeply and who cannot trust. You must understand that they need more love than anyone else, and just give and give and give until their hearts melt." [2]

It does not mean that we have to give them all our money or do everything they want.. What it means is that we treat them with respect, humility, kindness and love, a love that never gives up:

True Mother: "If you practice the principle of being humble when dealing with others, people will come to you – in fact, they will flock to you! If you emphasize your pride and position, they will leave you and not respect you." [3]

If we love people with genuine love, then God will be moved to tears, because then we resemble Him and True Parents.

Love from Bruno
