

HJ Seonghwa Youth 7-day Workshop held at Pak-chong Training Center, Thailand

Gi Seong Lee
October 13, 2019

On October 7-13, the Hyojeong Seonghwa Youth 7-day Workshop was held at the Pak-chong Training Center in Thailand with a total of 70 participants. The Hyojeong Seonghwa Youth 7-day Workshop was attended by two groups, the first group consisted of high schoolers and university students, and the second group consisted of elementary students and middle schoolers. The first group workshop was held for 3 days and the second group workshop was held for 4 days.

Through the opening ceremony, Heavenly Asia Pacific Branch President In-cheon Kim delivered a hopeful message entitled with "Do you want to be a blessed person?" and On the second day, self-reflection, special lectures and team activities were conducted, and on the third day, the participants went to Tree of Love, which the Heavenly Asia Branch designated a tree as it at the Pak-chong Training Center, and they spent time praying and writing what they felt and inspiration they were moved during the workshop. On the fourth day, the second group came and spent time teaming and preparing for the workshop, and on the fifth day, the opening ceremony and full-fledged team activities were held. On the sixth day, special lecture sessions and talent show sessions were held, and on the seventh day, the whole schedule was completed after the closing ceremony.

