On the third day of the Great Works (Nov. 3) in the morning, an Ancestor Liberation Ceremony for Generations 1-430 was held at the Cheonseong Wanglim Palace and Chinhwa Education Building A. The historical Ancestor Blessing Ceremony for Generations 1-430 was held with great grace at the main hall and the small hall of the Cheonseong Wanglim Palace.

Education and Promotion Department Director Jong-jin Kim, who was the Master of Ceremonies for the event, made his opening remarks. The event then proceeded as follows: Entrance of attendants, entrance of officiators (President Gi-seong Lee and his wife), lighting the holy candle (officiators), entrance of ancestors, invocation (Vice President Myong-kwan Lee), officiator's message, holy wine ceremony, holy water ceremony, affirmation of Blessing vows, benediction prayer (officiators), exchange of rings, declaration of marriage (officiators), offering of flowers, cake cutting, three cheers of Eog-mansei, recession of ancestors, and recession of officiators. President Gi-seong Lee, who was the officiator of the Ancestor Blessing Ceremony, delivered the testimony of KCLC pastors who had experienced the fire of the Holy Spirit.

He preached that blessed families must complete their mission of Vision 2020 Victory by becoming one with the spirit world and the physical world. And he offered the benediction prayer to Heavenly Parent: "Heaven has given us a wonderful opportunity to bless our ancestors up to generation 430. Today the blessed ancestors up to generation 430, returning the grace of Heavenly Parent, please protect the heavenly tribal messiahs on the earth and give your works for the families who inherited the Cheon Il Guk Hyojeong Won, so that they can restore their families and tribes and nations. Here is the land that your loyal servants, filial sons, and devoted daughters have consecrated with their tears, so please help us to open the era of the heavenly unified Korea and complete the heavenly continents and heavenly world with your miraculous works."
