This year three Tree of All Things Prayers were held during the 2020 Autumn Hyojeong CheonBo Great Works. The first one was held on October 21 at 3:30 p.m. and included 41 Korean leaders, among them the five Sub-region Directors. On the same day at 6:30 p.m. all the senior staff and employees of the training center gathered for a Tree of All Things prayer.

This prayer was filmed to stream to the Great Works being held in remote locations. Under the leadership of the Promotion Department Director Jong-jin Kim, who hosted this event, the representative leaders of Heavenly Korea and senior staff and employees of the training center gathered around the Tree of All Things to inherit heavenly grace by lighting Holy Candles for each other in a holy atmosphere. It was a precious time when all our families had a chance to repent and offer their determination to fulfill their duties to receive heaven's promise of the third blessing, "to have dominion over all things." Training Center Vice President Myong-kwan Lee offered an invocation, and President Gi-seong Lee read True Parents' words, following which the light of the holy candles was first passed to the pastors and then shared with all the participants as they sang, "Song of the Garden." FFWPUI Headquarters District Director Sang-seon Park concluded the whole program with four cheers of Eog Mansei and a final gyeongbae. Amid the splendor of the autumn foliage, the participants gathered in front of the Tree of All Things and firmly determined to properly establish the realm dominated by angels and all things with one heart centered on True Parents.

On the first day of the Great Works (Oct. 24), the senior staff and employees of the training center gathered at the Tree of All Things and offered jeongseong once again. Heavenly Asia Pacific Branch Training Center President In-cheon Kim offered a prayer, President Gi-seong Lee read True Parents' words and all the participants offered their prayer to heaven in unison after inheriting heavenly grace by lighting Holy Candles once again. During the second day of the Great Works (Oct. 25), which was held mainly for Heavenly Japan, 14 members of the Japanese Workshop Team staff attended a Tree of All Things prayer from 12:30 p.m. Japanese Workshop Team Lecturer Seiji Takagi hosted the event and Japanese Workshop Team Leader Toshiaki Yokoi offered a prayer, after which the light of the Holy Candles was passed from person to person and everyone offered a unison prayer.
