I hope you're doing well

1366th Tianxin Garden is sincere all night

Summary

Today, August 11th, is the birthday of Monjoue, the second child of the Funshinoki family, a day of remembrance for which his mother was very happy. In "Truchabi (赤ちゃん0)", the first thing you put things in front of the baby and tells the future, he was caught by his mother's autobiography. If you become one with Holy Mother Han's true mother, you will receive all abilities, so your plant style will grow well and become a big 'nam (tree)' of the unified family. For that reason, it is the first generation, second generation, third generation, fourth generation, including the chairs of elders.

40th grade certificate of 2nd year

He is a son of adultery whose purpose is to evangelize his father. Dad lived in anxiety and fear while drinking and smoking threats, even with his blessings. I could say a prayer in truth and vomit all my wrath before heaven. When I prayed a prayer, "Why God", I felt a resonance with Heavenly Father for the first time. "It must have been very painful. Everybody knows what you broke your heart while praying alone, and what you endured to keep your mom from hurting. I used to cry alone everyday too. I know exactly how you feel. "I heard Heavenly Parents comfort me.

Father also received heavenly comfort in prison and wrote the lyrics of the hymn "Glorious Gift". I cannot forget the voice of eternal love and comfort that brought me to life when I woke up from death. Great hymns were made, saying, "How forbid a heart that lacks uplifted and exalted, for heaven is the greatest glory, the embrace of glory, and grace is the drunk of love?" Everyone's goal is to be the one who receives the comfort of the Heavenly Father, and when the Father asks and comes and speaks to you, the place of adulteration becomes the place of glory. No matter how good the upper side is, if Heavenly Father is a place of sorrow, that place becomes hell.

Since I was educated that my father was doing the works of evil gods, I thought I needed to evangelize my father and make him a worker of good gods, so I participated in 40 shu. Praising so hard that I bleed, I felt the sadness and pain of my Heavenly Father at first, and the second, I became to have a surprising resonant time of joy and happiness of my Heavenly Mother. When I prayed earnestly, "Give me the opportunity to restore my father," I was able to receive an answer to my prayer and give my testimony today. Determine to evangelize with all the sincerity that Satan is touched.

The best way to separate evil spirits from earthly people is to inspire them. An evil spirit touched can be restored. Seeing earthly people revive, evil spirits can also be revived. As we enlightenment together and feel together on the road of revival, earthly men are the groundwork for revival for all in the spirit world. For it is only by the borrowing of the flesh that can be resurrected. So the best way to get the evil spirits out quickly is to fully penetrate and pray and praise and have absolute faith. They say absolute faith, absolute love, absolute obedience are the secrets of the release and release sphere of heaven on earth and heaven on earth. If the luck of unbelief is still coming up, it's that the evil spirit of unbelief has not departed from me. That's why you shouldn't quit Tenshinki Seishin. It's like breathing, you have to proceed with all your sincerity thinking that if you cut ties with Tenshinni, you will die.

Certificate of special sector training

In the family where three generations, they developed their faith, and participated in spiritual practice before entering the workplace. By praying and praising with tears, I entered the stage of emotionally understanding what I have understood only with my mind, and I felt that my true mother was my true father and mother in the synonymous prayer, and I couldn't stop overflowing with tears. When you fully enter your father's mental circle, you feel that their blessings are inexpressible. "I ask for the day when the love of God will be manifested in the body and heart of corrupt men. Then you will feel the explosive love of God, and your cells will tremble and your bones and flesh will solidify and become fossils, and all your five senses will become completely united. "As the saying goes, I was able to receive the grace of fully entering the feelings of Heavenly Parents.

Tuesday, Words from Father to Leaders

"As there is a story that the first will become the last and the last will become the first, just because you have done your best in Tenshinto before, and because you have been treated well to your true parents before, doesn't mean you can move forward even now." Nor the glory and grace of that time are joined together continuously. What is the point of past elation and glory if we can't properly and properly speak to Holy Mother Han now? Only those with unchanging grit and unchanging humility can survive. The older a person grows, the more he must become one with his true father and mother, but the older he grows the more himself he becomes, the more arrogant it is, and the easier it is to see Holy Mother Han true mother with his own eyes. Leaders must be absolutely humble. You must fulfill your true mother's words without fail. Ordination develops more in time. Above all, humility is necessary, and humble requires true love to put yourself down and do for others. Leaders who lack true love and lack devotion are prone to separate from heaven without knowing it.

Making yourself humbly before heaven is pure sincerity, and being able to receive direct education from Aboji is Tenshinni. If you talk to your mother's words on earth, and follow the guidance of your heavenly father's education, you can say that only your true parents and mothers, who are heaven and earth, have prayed with Tenshinji and listened to heaven's voice and went without listening to your father's education then you will run into a wall. It is your father's heart to teach you the easy way, and if there is a wall in the path that you are moving forward to fulfill what your mother commands you, it is your father who wants to clear that wall even if you call the absolute good spirit. For this reason, the part where I can play a particularly strong role is Tenshinki Seishin. Can we just cut it down? Leaders must unite with their true fathers. "\

If you give Tenshinshinshinsei, in fact, surprising blessings will descend. How does such miracles happen? Holy Mother Han, the mother of the universe, the true fathers of the first human beings, the mother of all humans, the true mother of all human beings, can you solve the secret. We are the people who have heard the greatest truth of human history. The truth that we have obtained the heavy life enlightenment that we can be born again through our True Father. The surprising truth that souls who died 1000 years ago and 10,000 years ago can be born again and become heavenly people through our True Mother. The truth that all five colored races of continents can become brothers and sisters through our Mother. If we fully realize this truth and be born again, we will be able to live in heaven on earth as a surprising blessing that we have never experienced. We pray that today we will be one with Holy Mother Han and pray that we will be one and one with our Heavenly Father.
