Good morning to you

I hope you're doing well

1446th Tianxin Garden is sincere all night

Summary

Your mother has reached her 71st day in detention center, and today she will have her first public trial and application for bail. Praying together filling the jail cells. "Exactly ten weeks have passed, and it's been a cold winter even with a thick coat, from short sleeves to long sleeves. The more winter gets deeper and the temperature goes down, the more anguish and love towards the true mother gets hotter. At this time, he was associated with Tenshinsai, the office of the true father, and received a message from the scene that the peace-loving world leaders and the elected families will give their full devotion and pray for the true mother's bail request and be fully released."

Impressions from the Japanese Shokuchi on the 1445th Tenshingo Seishin

As the extension was said, 'Everyone can receive the same benefit on the basis of 1440 sketches,' I felt the feeling of being raised to that standard just by looking at the 1440 sketch images.

The undecorated and pure figure of the family, who is told about her mother's recent status, overlaps with her mother, and overflows with her gratitude to her mother for believing in her, and she decided to become one with the true family.

Just listening to the prayer of the second generations towards the mother, I naturally cried up and felt myself becoming one with Heavenly Father and True Father. I realized that this is exactly what the heavenly resonance prayer is, and I understood that it was a small needle that my mother would enjoy, and I was grateful that I was one of them myself.

Until now, I always participated in substitute, but I thought I had to go there myself, and I was surprised and overwhelmed by how completely changed Kiyohira's appearance after 30 years. The power of the devotional prayer was astonishing, and it was the first time I actually participated in it that I felt moved and felt a deep guidance in everything.

40-day training student's proof: He repented for suffering his younger colleagues by becoming self-centered in his military life, and participated in 40-shu (40-shu) of spirituality. At first there was a lot of complaints, but in the middle he gained enlightenment and changed his heart and decided to become a Jesus man and be born again. You have to shift from mind-only faith to heart-centered faith. Heavenly resonance prayer restores churches spiritually, when 10 people and 20 people pray together, the spirit world moves, and miracles happen to struggling families. Looking back at the time when it was difficult to gather 10 people even after going over 400 times, today 45,000 people can pray with one heart, so miraculous evidence of petition is increasing.

Today's Word : "You cannot fulfill your share of responsibility without separating Satan". Separating Satan and fulfilling your share of responsibilities will cost you a bridge of love if you go directly from the indirect main jurisdictional sphere. He who goes that way is the true father and mother. This is what was said in 1990, when my father turned 80 years old, after such a miracle victory.

"Even when I think of the past, I did something like a dream. I never dreamed I did it. The heavens have prepared all the internal and external framework and accomplished it. The heavens struggled harder. That's why I'm a person who lives without complaining. "I should fulfill my 5% responsibility because of Heavenly Father and Mother who sends down a thousand times more blessings because Heaven is struggling a few times more. You have to realize this. Even in Jesus' time, heaven had prepared all environments and foundations so that the world would be united at one time. The environment of this era is exactly the same. Heaven is preparing this people and leaders. The era we have entered today has stood on historical foundations for thousands of years, and we must fulfill its blessings by fulfilling our responsibilities. No matter how difficult it is, dreamy miracles can be achieved if we carry on with responsibility.

Therefore, reflecting on the wrongs of the past, we must set Satan apart within ourselves, and we must take responsibility for the past. When we faithfully fulfill our responsibilities, the bridge of Heavenly Father's love is built, and we become the divine individual, the divine household, the divine people, and the divine nation within the main jurisdiction of that deep love. If you practice true love so diligently, you will form family-like bonds that can't be separated. You can't stay away from the restoration church like that. How thankful would you be if you have a child in your mouth who is possessed by an evil spirit, and all of them prayed together and saw the work of God there? Heaven sends down amazing blessings through Tenshinsai. May the prayer of heaven be the hope of the whole world, and that we may move further together towards victory for Mother and peace for humanity.

If we can make this hour of prayer where we pray so much that our throat is dripping that the throne of heaven is moving for the authority of heaven to be manifested in this earth, I believe this nation will be a blessing. Mother's authority is a worthy struggle. I hope that this will be a time to pray and pray for the forgiveness of the mother who is suffering through her afflictions, and that it will be a day of newness, with the forgiveness of all the world.
