Good morning to you
I hope you're doing well
1455th Tianxin Garden all night

Summary

Heavenly providence must advance without interruption. The weekend training at the Shurein-tei is now 1710th, and all the spirits who have been blessed to be dismissed will stand by us, and we must do our best, remembering that the final battle between good and evil is being fought on this earth.

From the president of the church praying in front of the detention center on the 82nd day, "In the midst of any twist or trial, I will go with all my diligence until the truth comes out, having faith that Heavenly Father will surely triumph." I'm going all out so that this trial can be reversed into blessings and triumphs. "and gets a message that says.

It's the hardest time but we must triumph. The will of heaven will be done on earth if you prevail in all things personally and family. Even though your mother is in detention, she is told of her Heavenly Father's dream, and she believes that she will win. The daily discourse causes painful feelings, but mother clearly says, "Victory is always on the side of Heaven." We are convinced that human history is sure to be the history of comeback order, so we are sure to triumph even in the midst of trials. Those who have faith that His will will work constantly, but those who are not convinced will give up. Even when there was a movement for independence in Korea, people who believed that independence would be achieved constantly exercised, but those who thought it could not be done gave up. We are the same in achieving the kingdom of heaven, don't be carried away by the current world. Our steps are unstoppable because we know that this world will surely return to the kingdom of heaven. Even when your mother is in prison, she never stops speaking of heaven. If we all grasp the Tenshinzai prayer and pray with tears, we should proceed with confidence that there is nothing we cannot do.

Father's message to the Japanese Spiritual Three-Day Training: "When everyone is in despair, must there be one who looks to the heavens? When I look upon the earth and shed tears, how much I miss my Heavenly Father. Even if you cry, you must be a weeping child gazing into heaven. What is good then look to the heavens and cry. I mean, I can't tell if my tears shed are tears from Heavenly Father or mine. Cry to the Heavenly Father if you shed tears. Yes, have we ever had a time when our road wasn't hard. But I'm proud of our path. If you go up to the heavens, your tears will be like shining crystals that sweat can't replace. More beautiful and valuable than diamonds is pure heart of love. Tears shed with pure sympathy shine sincerely, laughter and prayers offered with pure heart of sympathy have the power to move the whole heavens. Let us move on together because we all have that power. There aren't many rubble left. Fear not, for the heavens work together. The True Household Fourth Base in the Spiritual World and Two Generations of Pure Water on the Earth are doing it together, so we the Blessing

Household have nothing to fear. We win because the heavens are with us. Victory victory, another win.
"With a bright smile, thy father conveyed these words.

Heavenly parents are alive, and will always be with you and serve as your father. When you are completely united with your father, there is no envy. The one who enshrined the hidden Heavenly Mother's body is the only daughter entity Holy Mother Han true mother. Then, when you pray at Tenshin-ni, your father and mother will serve as the gods of the day and teach you. That will last forever, heaven on earth and heaven on heaven, complete the liberation zone. Amazing time when the intangible Heavenly Parents are officiating the body of Heavenly Parents. This is an era where the whole spirit world supports the Heavenly Parents and True Parents. The noble power that establishes a unified world through the central spirit of reigenment is acted like a tornado. Its core is this Tenshinki Seijin. This is the golden age of providence when prophecies are fulfilled. How regretful will it be to die on earth without receiving the benefits of it? Even if we go to the spirit world tomorrow, if we can do our best as true children of heaven who receive the perfect love of our Heavenly Father today, we can live with joy. May heaven prepare every blessing for you to be a blessed day, pouring out the bounty of the Holy Spirit like waterfall.
