I hope you're doing well
The 1477th Tianxin Garden is sincere all night

Summary

A message from the detention center as he spends his 113th day, "I put my personal life behind me and lived with love and sacrifice for my Heavenly Father and the entire human race." Father open wide the gates of heaven alone since Seiwa for the salvation of mankind and a world of peace. I sincerely hope that the truth will be revealed and free liberation will be achieved through Tenshinki Seijin. "\

Today's Kunjoku was a model for Tenshin Konjoku. Even if you read one page of kun-joku, you become thirsty, and if you do kun-juku in this manner, each of your words will become a life

Kunshinkoku only phrase "Tenshinki must call and educate children who think heaven is pure." Just as Dalai Lama Tibetan Buddhism nurtures people, we should bring spiritually bright children from young age to raise them. It is Tenshinji to raise people who hear the voice of heaven and communicate the heart of heaven. The underworld and the earth must move forward perfectly as one. "In order to fulfill this noble word, the practice of celestial resonance prayer is to enlighten spirituality and educate blessed families.

If the subjective celestial world plays the role without discouraging that the present is difficult, 10 years and 20 years from now we will see victory beyond imagination. Even when times are tough, looking at a young spiritual Shuyu can see the future. Of all the religions in the world, there is only one religion that ignites passionate faith in young people. We have a future. We must be the way we move forward with a stronger absolute faith than yesterday, that heaven will surely play their absolute faith and absolute love, and that there will be growth and development that cannot be imagined.

Proof of a Japanese missionary trainee: 25 years ago, my husband suddenly reconciled, but after that, he was able to protect the household and win. She gave birth to her first child, and her second daughter Seiwa at three days old, and her husband gave birth to Seiwa when she gave birth to the third child. He raised the daughter well and sent her to spiritual ascetic practice, and received her favor and encouraged her mother to receive 40 asceticism, so she grew up to be a daughter of noble faith. Participating in the training meeting with three goals: 1 to be devoted to your true mother, 2 to be devoted for your husband whom you consecrated 225 years ago, and 3 to be devotional for your daughter's blessing. While interacting with my husband, I was able to praise, pray and worship with my husband, and experience the joy of having fun together. It is said that if the earthly man reads kunoku for those in the spirit world, and eats delicious food with a heart full of sincerity, he will become astonishing spiritually mature.

Living while interacting with spirits forces you to become psychotic, so you can easily go to the spirit world. Since the main person or opponent who goes ahead will come and meet you, you can go to peace without losing your way. It's a surprising blessing to say that the spiritual world blesses. It is said that a person whose other side is going to the spirit world becomes very spiritual. Living as a married couple with the absolute good spirits you have received is not lonely because it enters a spiritual state. No matter what you are doing, respond with your husband, give him inspiration, teach him. Reported about a miracle experiencee that I realized with my husband.

The deep feelings of a mother's heart wanting to be with us children forever makes me cry. There was a moving belief from Shuyoshi that fathers and mothers who had aged like their grandparents, shed tears of emotion when they saw them behind them praying for their mother with their sore feet and praying for their name. We should become the first world where people will be praised for being an elder who walked through life with a truly brilliant heart from the second and third generation.

There are many earthquakes in Japan, but we must have spiritual earthquakes through resonant prayers. Since the era of Heavenly Parents directly ruled has opened, when you listen to the evidence of those who resonated with tears after receiving the Tenshin Resonance Prayer Training, you can see that Heavenly Parents have already entered their hearts. If we return to Japan and become a home church where our Heavenly Parents live to rule, we can open the Great Reconstruction era. The entire spirit world will be mobilized and will be able to drag along with miraculous acts.

Father's message: "The underworld is in a very, very fierce war." But don't worry, Heaven has already opened the gate of victory. Don't breakdown even if you can't see it right away. Don't lose hope. Those who know the feelings of heaven never lose hope. Knowing how to fulfill the creation ideals of the Creator Heavenly Father, what is noble than this? Even if the rain and wind blows and you can't see anything in front of you, seek true love and live for His will as Heaven's lion, Heaven will bring down its light and show you the way.

Even though the bow flies, if I go day by day with the determination that Satan will never steal my future, Heaven will prepare the way. True love is great. Be selfish. What we need is the unchanging spirit of the Confucius, the true spirit of the father and mother. "\

No matter how hard it is, we can triumph if our hearts are filled with hope. For the living and working Heavenly Fathers are in charge. Believe that, I hope today will be a time of devotion in absolute faith.
