I hope you're doing well

The 1488th Tianxin Garden is dedicated all night

Summary

Day 129 message from the detention center: "The way we represent and defend the truth without wavering in the midst of difficult situations is a great lesson and strength for us." I will inherit the education of the Korean ethnic groups, and I will openly shout out the phases and values of my mother and reveal the truth. With Tenshinsen all-night diligence, I am determined to walk with more passion and courage towards the world. I pray that God protects the health of my mother in distress, and that she will be free quickly. "Your mother is really going through a hardship day by day which is difficult to bear. If we enter the resonant sphere where Heavenly Parents cry tears of their feelings, the spirit world will be mobilized and officials will take place. I pray with all my heart for amazing favour prayer meeting today.

The Proverbs of Exodus

"We were a small church in the beginning, but we conquered very difficult times with true love overflowing and uniting each other." THE UNITY CHURCH HAS BEEN DENIED, BUT THE MORE DENIED THE LOWER IN ITS POSITION WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED IN A HIGHER DIMENSION. That is why we must walk centered on the principle that perfect subject produces perfect subjects. "Now if we are completely united in the whole world, we can easily overcome this difficult period with heaven's power, but if we don't have true love, we create an atmosphere of resentment, frustration, and grieving and shifting responsibilities on each other. I believe that if the Messiah is a perfect blessed household, a perfect clan, a complete blessed household, and a perfect leader, a perfect object will be created and the will of heaven will be established on this earth.

Proof of being a student

I entered Seibun University Language Institute as a way to escape from my very difficult and difficult life leading up to high school, where I spent an amazingly beneficial period in which my life changed 180 degrees. After participating in the spiritual training session and the Moshim training session, the spirit of heaven pushed me, and I deeply felt that it was the heavenly father who had loved me even more when I was in pain. And the relay prayer was held for 24 hours, and it became a period of great devotion for life. Determined to pass on true love as a nurse.

Participating in 40 shu will never be damaged. Through the 40th, the capacity for prayer and praise will be manifested. Watching the dormant 2nd generation fully body the feelings of Heavenly Parents and decide to become the missionary god Top Gun, he experienced the role of living and working Heavenly Parents. According to his father's will when he breathed his last breath, some people participated in 40 shu. I realized that the best gift a father can give his child is 40 shu. He realized that the most important mission of a pastor is to become able to pray, praise, and resonance, after being associated with Tenshinzen.

You can't form heaven without the underworld being mobilized. Heaven is supposed to begin with true parents and not with fallen offspring. Just as we received the help of the angels in the creation of Adam, so also at this time of recreation, we must experience the Spirit and Truth with the help of the Spirit. You can't be born again as a people of heaven on earth if you don't experience the duties of the heavenly father who is alive. Don't just end up with philosophy exercise. We have to create a time where all people can praise Heavenly Father, true Father and Mother of Heaven and Earth, through the experience of the Living Heavenly Father and Mother of the Spirit and Truth. If we go from being an individual to a god, and from my home to a godly household, living with the help of the spirit world, I believe that a remarkable role will happen for your mother soon. Join us for prayer meeting this evening as we mobilize the spirit world.
