Good morning

1533th Tianxin Garden all night sincere

Summary

True love is the secret to overcoming any difficult situation. True love has completion, success and fulfillment. Tenshin Resonance Training is a place where true love is centered on resonance. This world hears voices resonating through the air, but the world of the spiritual body is a world resonating with true love, and without true love there is no resonance. True love is omnipotent, so it can also open the gates of heaven.

True Paternity Sutra: "I went the way of love for my Heavenly Father." For love we stayed up the night, we wandered, we ran a thousand miles, we crossed the ocean, we struggled to love foreign people. You all may think it's easy but it's a very difficult road. There have been a lot of times when I just wanted to pack up and walk away immediately. If I don't someone else will, so I will. Because of this, the best persecution in history is the true father. ""What a person who goes to true love should do"" Above all haste is an exercise to become one. "If we understand, love and support through dialogue, we cannot become one." Together we can achieve greater achievements and achieve surprising victories than ever before.

True Paternal Sutra: "We know that Heaven is facing man by love, yet always strikes and snatches." Since history, where else would you have become self-incarnate and practiced love other than your father? Therefore, we have witnessed that even heaven cannot but be moved, and no matter how wicked they are, they cannot but melt before that love. "Whoever diligently diligently in this word, the heavens will triumph.

Father's message for March 28th:

"Painful stories that a child hurts are delivered quickly to the mother's ears." If you pray for your mother with tears, you must know that it will reach Omma. You must know that your sincerity is the light of heaven, the foundation upon which the spirit world is mobilized, and the love of your mother's strength. The teacher is just the power of compassion. We must know. Heavenly Parents know how much they have persevered with tears of blood, how much they have endured everything with just one heart to hold their children for 6000 years? Simply with the will to hold a child, with true love, with pain, with mistakes, with patience. In order to fulfill heaven's order, mother entrusted her life to heaven and lived in heaven, carrying the wrongs of all her children and suffering from her children and walking alone.

I think about the pain and wounds of Heavenly Father more than my own pain and wounds, I think about the hurts and wounds of my children, and I just lived a life embraced with true love. We should know such a mother and scold her well. Your mother must know what circumstances and feelings she has come through. A true mother who walked with true love no matter what moment. You must know that the most high and beautiful in human history. Don't be left as a sacrificial mother. You have to remain as a benediction, true love, happiness, blessing mother, and you have to become one with Holy Mother Han entity Holy Spirit mother, and lead Heavenly Father Holy Communion to great victory. How much you love and miss your mother. Whether you want to feel your mother's sentiment and give her strength, I hope that you can answer everything through prayer. I hope that I will become a blessed family that I command my liver to become a mother who says, "I am the only one left," but a mother who says "I am very happy to be with you." "\

Message by Noshin:

"Even if you live one day, you have to live for your mother and Heavenly Father." We are the blessed household, a people of heaven, a chosen people who have received the will of heaven on earth. When we recognize our inadequacies and move forward, we must know that we can look around us with the eyes of heaven and feel our surroundings with the spirit of heaven. I came to the spirit world early, but I hope it will not be a tearful posthumous ceremony, but a joyous thank you posthumous ceremony. We are grateful to help our true parents in the spirit world and fulfill the will of our Heavenly Father. However, I'm sorry for the long time I've come to the spirit world earlier than my parents and hurt my parents. I hope that you will succeed in my generation and follow me in order to fulfill the will of Heaven. I promise to serve wherever you are and whatever you do, as you walk the path of compassion. I hope that we will be all who follow the path of compassion for our Mother and Heavenly Father. I want to wipe your mother's tears directly. As a child's reason, when you see a mother who is shedding tears, sad, and sorry, leaving her child behind, you cannot sit still. Our Omma is not the one to do that. Fathers and mothers are the ones who give and give everything for the sake of their children. During the cold winter, days when the cold wave hits, it's the father and mother who offer their scarf, gloves, and even the clothes they're wearing to make sure the child isn't cold. Don't take it for granted. You must try to repay your father and mother with gratitude. Let no more tears of blood flow from your mother's eyes. May smiles of joy, happiness and love come out of your mother, and I hope that you all live with the spirit of compassion. "\

Today's only word was that Confucius loyal retainers show up in difficult times. In such a difficult time, everyone who receives heavenly resonance for the three days is the Confucius loyal retainer of heaven. Since this record will forever be recorded in the subjective celestial world, and the ancestors behind them are also mobilized to achieve the will of heaven, I hope that this will be a glorious time when the ancestors can enter the position of Confucius loyal retainers, and that it will be a time to pray hard with the subjective heavenly world.
