Summary

Impressions on Kami Nippon Shokuchi: Before now, I was able to shout and applaud as much as I wanted at church, but at home I became aware of my surroundings and participated. However, the grace of feeling the spiritually waves with the ears of heart and being filled with the love of your mother remains the same. A blessed environment felt to be grateful in all circumstances, and the consequence prayer became a prayer of gratitude and repentance that brought tears to my eyes. Thank you very much for the grace of Tenshinshu.

The Shin-Nippon Spiritual 3-day training session was a time of grace, where tears flowed like waterfalls. Fujinohara Samonimu's impression at today's closing ceremony: There is a big difference between praying with education and praying without receiving it. It has been a valuable time to emotionally connect the core contents. I felt that it would be a great power to have them pray together in a group of four people pray together with tears in their throats and loudly prayers. I have experienced the blessing of praying for each other, and even after returning to Japan, I am convinced that 3-4 people gather and practice it will have a great celestial use.

When the order was issued to be disbanded in Japan, the person who hurt my heart the most was the true father and mother. Concerned for us more than his own pain, he immediately put a word toward Japanese food. At first, it was said, "All beloved Japanese Shokuchi, please cheer up," but the 1300+ Japanese Shokuguchi who participated energetically in this Mikkashu were the only ones who fulfilled their words. "If we look at it with faith, we cannot help but give strength because our Heavenly Father is in charge." Heavenly Father is not silent. As it says, "When one prays, he speaks His word through many people." Exactly, I can't help but be strong because our Heavenly Father's dreams will surely come to pass. The dream of Heavenly Parents will surely come true, and the day will surely come when all peoples will boast about their true Fathers and Mothers, so if you believe it, you have to be strong. "Heavenly Father knows our tears and our struggles. Heavenly Father has always begun a new providence in the midst of afflictions. and encouraged me that though difficulty may seem with human eyes, a new way opens up for me, and the will of heaven will be accomplished.

Difficulties in the process of achieving the spirit are hope for a comeback to decline. On March 1, 1919, the Korean people who lost their country and went through decline shouting hooray, a true father was born on this earth. That's why father no matter what situation he was in, he came shouting billionaires saying that he was hoping for decrease. Mourning in difficult times brings evil gods together. The harder it is the more you have to give thanks and praise. That's why we praise the Grace of Holy Communion everyday. Today more than yesterday, praise on high and give thanks to eternal blessings. Giving thanks for chosen grace, giving thanks not only with my mouth but also with all my heart, giving thanks for tribulations, and with all my diligence I exalt greater glory. I hope that we become people who can achieve and devote themselves to the end without being discouraged in any situation, and never lose their heart until the end.

"On the 14th year of heaven living in real life for the sake of the Creator Heavenly Father and Mother, you must participate in the occasion of enshrining your Heavenly Father without fail wearing a formal uniform." "So it is in the proverb. You must wear the dress of mood, not the dress of the upper. Those in training are the same as those in the uniform. It means that I will depart the 1534th time of Tenshin-sen Seiji wearing the court dress of spirit. If you are wearing a formal attire of spirit, words, praise, and inspired feelings flow out, Heaven will surely serve you through and meet Heavenly Father.

Message received by Pure Water II: "In the spirit world you can see the spirit." What kind of mood you pray for is the question. Supplications must be made with good heart. It's important to choose the path that's right for you. You can go to a state where no one has ever been. When we pray for the nation, the world and the heavens, we can embody the deep world. You have to know where your mood is by praying carefully. You have to know where your feelings are dwelling in your home, clan, nation, world and heaven. ""So many people stay in their personal moods and pray, ""Help me"" I can say that I prayed for the first time, when I crossed nations, worlds and heavens, and body of Heavenly Father's mental sphere. If you pray that kind of prayer with all your heart, even for one minute, the Father in Heaven will be pleased to receive you.

From Tsushin-sama, "Earth and Heaven must go together." We all have to become pioneers and walk towards places we have never been. Heavenly Parents and True Parents are with us. I resonate with the sentiments of Heavenly Parents and True Parents, I have to keep going and not give up. When the True Mother comes, there must be providence. It has to be reported that Shokuchi-tachi developed spirituality through Tenshin Seishin. " sent a message. Today, I pray that the Heavenly Father, the True Father, the Absolute Good Spirits resonate with you all.
