

I Prayed and God Answered my Prayer

“Suddenly, from the sky, a message came to me as fast as the speed of light. The words were written on my forehead and spoken simultaneously, and His words were: “Son! Why are you so troubled?”

My Conversion Experience

Unification Church Early Missionaries in USA

After attending 2-7 and 21-Day simultaneous workshops in the Unification church, I had a defining moment the day I was asked if I want to join the Unification Movement. I loved everything about the Divine Principle, the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon (Unification Church) and I enjoyed the friendly company of church members, but I was hesitant about joining.

“Make your own decision!”

As John and Jacinta (two people that witnessed to me) were talking to me and trying to help make up my mind, I was still not cooperating but Jacinta tried again. she said, “Ali, we are not here to push, nor force you to join our movement; you are old enough to make your own decision. There is nothing hidden about our movement. You spent almost forty days with us learning our teaching. We have done all we could to help you”.

As she pointed to the forest she added, “Go there and pray and ask God for help to tell you what to do.” I mildly retaliated and made a cheap comment saying, “Oh Yah, God is going to speak to me and tell me what to do, just like that. If God could do that with me, why couldn’t He end the misery and suffering in the world”.

My prayer to God

I knew deep inside that I was crossing the line with God. Anyway to make my story short. I went deep into the forest and came to a ravine and found a spot that felt good for a prayer. As I was ready, I closed my eyes, and muttering like a little boy, I said “Heavenly Father, I am sorry to call Father. My religion (Islam) forbids me to call you Father. But I would love to be your son. I would love to call you Father. But I am not worthy. I love this group. I learned so much about you through their teachings, but there is so much controversy about them”.

God spoke to me

Suddenly, from the sky, a message came down to me as fast as the speed of light. The words were written on my forehead and spoken simultaneously, and the words were “Son! Why are you so troubled? If you are sincerely doing it for me, wouldn’t I be with you? Wouldn’t I save you even if you are in the most dangerous group”?

It is truly amazing! God does speak to His people and answer their prayers! This is an answer not only to Christians, but to Muslims as well! The three Abrahamic religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam, need not fear God’s new truth taught by the Unification church, but need to pray and ask god for His help. And Muslims need to understand that God is our Heavenly Father.
