

Rape Survivors - Seeds of Hope

Robin Marsh
November 16, 2014

Rape survivors 'Seeds of Hope' is the extraordinary story of Masika and sexual violence in the Congo. Masika knows first-hand the damage of rape in conflict. She helps thousands of Congolese survivors at her Centre in Eastern Congo by planting seeds of hope. A Q&A with film maker Fiona Lloyd-Davies will follow the screening.

The TG Foundation & Mothers of Congo, sponsored by the Universal Peace Federation, cordially invite you to the screening of the Award Winning Documentary 'Seeds of Hope'. on Wednesday 26th November at 6.30pm.

Entry: £10. Proceeds will be split between the Masika Centre & The TG Foundation Education Programme

We do hope that you will be able to join us for what will be an insightful and informative evening about the ongoing war and human rights abuses taking place in Congo. It outlines heroic efforts to respond and cope amid this tragedy.

The eastern region of the Democratic Republic of Congo has been described as the 'rape capital of the world'. Human rights violations and the impunity for rape and other crimes make it the world's worst place to live as a woman. The screening proceeds will support the TG Foundation Education Programme and Masika Centre.
