

Autumn UPF Weekend Seminar: Examining principles that contribute to peace

Robin Marsh
October 2, 2016

Cleeve House There is a gathering of participants from Birmingham, London and Yorkshire to spend a weekend examining principles that contribute to peace in the beautiful surroundings of Cleeve House in Wiltshire. Representatives of the Universal Peace Federation and the Women's Federation for World Peace are taking a weekend to understand the origins of these organisations and the initiatives that has underpinned their development.

UPF organises these weekends once every three months with Ambassadors for Peace. The weekends allow the study and discussion of peace making principles. These can be seen on www.upf.org/principles.

The weekends examine the five points that underpin Universal Peace Federation activities. The weekend seminar also considers the life of the co-founders of Universal Peace Federation and the Women's Federation for World Peace.

Videos of the weekend's presentations will be uploaded soon. Tim Miller's presentations Universal Values as a Foundation for World Peace and its Part Two

FIVE PRINCIPLES OF PEACE

1. God is the Parent of Humankind.
2. Humans are essentially Spiritual in Nature.
3. Marriage is the Sacred Institution; Family is the School of Love.
4. God's Ideal-Live for the Sake of Others.
5. Interreligious and International Cooperation are essential in World Peace.
