

UK - UPF's Africa Day 2017 a programme of speakers, music and African foods

Robin Marsh
May 20, 2017

Africa Day 2017 was a colourful and inspiring programme of speakers, music and African foods. Held at UK - UPF HQ on Saturday, May 20th, Africa Day's ideals assembled speakers from across the continent. The audience gathered were from all over the world attracted maybe by Africa's colour and enthusiasm. A video was shown of Africa Day being celebrated in New York with the former UN Secretary General HE Ban Ki Moon. (Link to All Videos)

Speakers included:

Henri-Pierre Koubaka (Video Link)

Journalist and Project Manager at Children's Radio Foundation

Tony Tokunbo Fernandez (Video Link)

Tony Tokunbo Eteka Fernandez is an International Award Winner, Published Author & Poet, Events

Consultant , MC and Youth Empowerment Consultant . He is also The CEO of AFRICA4U and The Founder of Africans in The Diaspora Online Network.

Charlotte Simon: Founder, Mothers of Congo (Video Link)

Ibrahim K. Asante: Chairman, Significant International Group (SIG) (Video Link)

Chairman, Significant International Group (SIG) and Founder of Significant International Training Systems (SITS), Ibrahim Kwame Asante has assisted thousands of individuals, professionals and organisations such as TIENS GROUP (a Multinational Chinese Health Company with presence in over 110 countries) where he also serves as UK Advisory Board Member, to achieve long-lasting beyond imagination performance results.

Simba Chioto: (Video Link)

Media Director, Pan-Africanist and Writer. He is a Video Director and Editor, Writer and Social Humanitarian

Simba Chioto has a degree in Television and Film Production from University of Greenwich, London and a Diploma in the Management of Information Systems.

Some of his media work highlights include being selected to work for the Olympic Broadcasting Company (OBS), a company that beamed the London 2012 Olympics around the world. He was also an official London Ambassador who welcomed dignitaries from around the world and received appreciation from Prime Minister David Cameron and Mayor Boris Johnson.

Some of the organizations he has worked for in London include Shape a disabled persons empowering organization and Worldwrite a charity that deals with issues shunned by the mainstream media. At Worldwrite he has been a researcher about the European and English canon, slavery, colonialism literature and the works of powerful historian CLR

James. He joined ZimLink, an international organization that promotes culture exchange and empowering individuals through the use of media

Live Israelah P. Chambo (Video Link)

Live Israelah P. Chambo is a British Talk Show Host, Entrepreneur, Fashion Designer, Hair & Beauty Stylist, Photographer -Stylist, Producer, and Ambassador For Peace in the World, a Pastor's wife and A Worshipper of God. MA Fashion Enterprise & Society, BA (Hons) Fashion Design and Manufacture. Associate Lecturer Sheffield College, Visiting Lecturer Africa (ISAM).

Tania Songini and Aliu Bello: (Video Link)

Tania Songini: Former - Finance Director at Siemens Specialising in the Energy Field and UPF Sustainable Development Goals committee

Mr Aliu Bello: Formerly UNICEF, UPF Sustainable Development Goals committee

Dr Yehoeshahfaht Ben Israel

Dr Yehoeshahfaht Ben Israel is a Researcher, Policy Advisor, Community Activist, Media Broadcaster and Academic Consultant. He is a representative of the Dr. Martin Luther King Institute for a New Humanity and a Director of the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy's Africa Programs.