

UPF Europe's program at the EU Parliament on Prevention of Violent Extremism

Robin Marsh
December 5, 2017

'Radicalisation and Violent Extremism in Europe: Focus on Prevention' December 5th, Brussels. This was hosted by the Universal Peace Federation - Europe, the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace, Human Rights Without Frontiers and Women's Federation for World Peace.

Counter-terrorism expert, Dr Afzal Ashraf, University of Nottingham, speaking on the panel on the effect of geo-politics on radicalisation. Senator Jean-Marie Bockel addressed the best practices of local government and community level practices to prevent or manage extremism. Christian Hausmann introduced the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace.

