The Universal Peace Federation 'Summit for Peace Assembly and One Million Rally' included a wide array of global figures crossing political and geographical borders convened mostly virtually due to covid 19 restrictions from 9 am (KST) in Cheongshim Peace Center in Gapyeong Province, South Korea, February 13, 2022.

It was co-chaired by H.E. Ban Ki-moon former Secretary-General of the United Nations, Prime Minister Samdech Hun Sen of the Kingdom of Cambodia and hosted by UPF Co-Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon. It concluded with the #WorldSummit2022 Seoul Resolution and several #ThinkTank2022 proposals in Prime Minister's Hun Sen's Keynote Address. He said (in paraphrased notes):

'Mutual prosperity and greater interdependence are interlinked with peace. The peace of the Korean peninsula cannot be separated from peace in the wider region and world. It should not be seen as solely a realm for buffer states between greater powers and a geopolitical struggle. He saw a Korea that was divided by land but not by blood. He considered that the two nations should co-exist with different political systems to allow the Korean people the opportunity to reconcile. A Cambodian adage says 'We cannot cut the bloodline We cannot cut water.' Culture is a critical source of peace and reunification. The Korean people's desire for reunification is based on a long proud history of national identity.

'I believe the two states toward one nation, one people one peninsula one culture initiative is practical and achievable because it is aimed at promoting cultural exchanges and people to people ties between the two Koreas.' It is a low-hanging fruit that we can easily pick and be inspired by the UPF policy of shared values, mutual respect, mutual understanding, trust, and prosperity.

Prime Minister Hun Sen outlined the potential of a united Korea for its contribution to the regional and world economy and culture. He proposed the following:

Transform the DMZ into a safe and open cultural corridor it can provide a platform for cultural performance art exhibitions and other cultural exchanges.

The two Koreas should cooperate under the framework of UNESCO to create the necessary condition for dialogue based upon respect for commonly shared values.

The two Koreas should work together to advance the Korean culture, connecting the Korean civilisation to the other civilisations and jointly develop culture-based tourism and innovation. Full diplomacy for instance can jointly promoted by the two Koreas.

I call upon the sector leaders of the two nations to give input towards the one nation, one peninsula, one people, one culture initiative so that we can translate this concept into practical, achievable and concrete action. Trust can only be built on action not empty promises.
