The WFWP Hawai'i Chapter hosted a heartwarming Meet and Greet Potluck Dinner for WFWP-USA President Kaeleigh Moffitt on Thursday, November 14, 2024, at the Honolulu Family Learning Center. This special gathering, attended by 33 participants marked President Kaeleigh's first visit to Hawai'i and provided an opportunity for local members to meet her in person. The evening's program, led by Donna Shaver, WFWP-HI Chairwoman, began with a warm welcome as President Kaeleigh was presented with a beautiful tuberose and red rose lei, a gesture embodying the "aloha" spirit.

The potluck dinner was a culinary delight, featuring a wide array of homemade dishes and specialties that showcased the diversity of Hawaiian and international cuisine. Attendees enjoyed lively conversations and a spirit of camaraderie, with President Kaeleigh taking the time to connect personally with each guest. Her heartfelt speech highlighted her journey to becoming WFWP President, overcoming challenges, and expressing deep gratitude for the foundation laid by women leaders before her. Her words, filled with the vision of Mother Moon, resonated deeply with everyone present, inspiring a renewed commitment to the mission of WFWP.

A highlight of the evening was the exchange of gifts, where President Kaeleigh received locally made treasures, including Maui and Kauai cookies, Lehua honey, and a silk scarf, as tokens of appreciation. Guests included notable figures such as Rev. Jeff and Keiko Nakama, Rev. Ernie Ho, and Doris Edwards, who contributed to the evening's joyous and heartistic atmosphere. The event concluded with smiles, laughter, and an overwhelming sense of connection, embodying the true spirit of the WFWP mission.

The WFWP Hawai'i Chapter looks forward to future opportunities to deepen these relationships and continue fostering the values of love, peace, and global family. This memorable evening set the stage for continued growth and collaboration, leaving an indelible mark on all who attended.

Testimonies from the Evening

The event's success was reflected in the heartfelt testimonies shared by participants. Doris Edwards expressed her gratitude, saying, "Both events were well-planned and very enjoyable. I feel blessed to be a part of this amazing community of awesome women!"

Marie Francoise-Mitchell shared, "The ambiance during the Meet and Greet evening was magical, jovial, and comforting. It connected us with True Mother's heart and put Hawai'i on the map for good! We are now hoping and praying for the next level - an official visit from True Mother herself!"

Rena Saito, a young CARP leader, captured the warmth of the evening in her feedback: "I like her; she gives hugs to everybody!" She added that President Kaeleigh's genuine care and open heart bridged the gap between generations, leaving a lasting impression.

This special evening embodied the "aloha" spirit and demonstrated the power of connection, leaving attendees inspired and hopeful for the future of WFWP Hawai'i and its mission to build a world of peace and harmony.
