HERSTORY AWARD

History has often prioritized "his story," leaving many incredible "her stories" in the shadows. To bring these remarkable stories to light, WFWP USA introduces the HerStory Award. This award honors women not only for their exceptional achievements in various fields but also for the inspiring journeys behind those achievements.

Each recipient of the HerStory Award is recognized for her bravery, compassion, and unwavering commitment to using her talents to uplift others, even when faced with significant challenges. As part of this honor, recipients share practical lessons and insights from their experiences, offering encouragement and wisdom to other women and future generations.

The HerStory Award emphasizes that through investing in people and relationships, every woman has the power to lead and make a difference, regardless of her title or position. It celebrates the extraordinary potential within each woman to accomplish great things for the greater good.

This award is a tribute to women worldwide who are not just leaders but peace leaders, embodying the principle of "Living by the Logic of Love."
