

Regarding Sanctuary Church

Peter Dean Nordquist
August 20, 2017

Regarding Sanctuary Church: Yes, it seems that Sanctuary Church is still picking up members with the weakest foundation - no matter how old they may be, by repeating the complaints of Hyung Jin Nim and Kook jin Nim. Since it still seems like an issue, although I have posted these comments before, perhaps a few people missed them, and perhaps some people will find value in reading them again.

All anyone has to do if they are unclear about the issue is to pray or even just contemplate until you get a clear answer that your conscience tells you is from God and or the highest spirit world, which of course includes True Father.

1) The beginning of my considering the issue happened before Hyung Jin Nim "broke his silence." On a Saturday it happened that several times during the day I had strong, vivid flashes (spiritual visions) of True Mother, so I realized something was up and I felt from these that True Mother was asking me to take responsibility for something - although it wasn't at all clear what that something was. Then a few days later I had a really strange dream about True Father and myself.

[Beginning of Strange Dream]

True Father and I were standing in front of each other totally naked. We were connected at the sexual organ (interpret as lineage). Father's face was frozen in an unchanging big smile that seemed forced and artificial. he was looking directly in my eyes. With his two arms, he was repeating the following motion: First he had both his arms bent at the elbows with his hands clenched as fists touching knuckle to knuckle at his solar plexus. In that position without moving his lips or changing his frozen grin (like a ventriloquist speaking), he said "Cain Abel." Then he moved only his left arm, still bent at the elbow, so that his forearm and fist were vertical - having only rotated his shoulder to achieve this, at which he said nothing. Then again he moved his left arm back down to repeat the original position of his fists touching knuckle to knuckle and again said, "Cain Abel." He repeated this several times.

[End of Strange Dream]

Awhile later I heard that Hyung Jin Nim "broke his silence."

2) Then there was circulating on Facebook lists the video of a spiritual basket-case member in England who was saying that after watching Hyung-Jin Nim's sermon on video that he was so full of spiritual life now, and agreeing with Hyung-Jin Nim that True Mother should not be calling herself "the only begotten daughter of God"

When we look this up on the internet, we find a speech, "The Sound of the Bell of the Mind," given before Hyung Jin-Nim was even born, in which Father himself introduces this phrase:

"God will be more accepted in this country when we talk about His only begotten daughter as well."

There are other speeches as well in which Father uses the phrase that make clear what Father means by it:

"Let Us Know Ourselves" [God's Will and the World] 9/30/1979

"Since you feel such an urge to love the grass, trees, and flowers, the birds and running water, how can you not love your fellow man? When you lie on the beach, you can feel that you are lying in the bosom of your parent, or that when leaning against a tree you are leaning against your own brother. Would nature protest, or feel that you truly love and know it? All things exist for you, so you can appreciate them for that reason. As a man, you are the only begotten son of the universe, and as a woman you are the only begotten daughter of the universe."

The phrase "only begotten son or daughter" is equivalent to what Father means by saying that every individual is an "individual-truth-body" with an unfallen Original Mind and unfallen Conscience (in spite of the fallen physical body and consequent retarded growth of the spiritual body).

Although Hyung-Jin Nim must have heard by now that he was mistaken on his initial public critique of True Mother's words, he has apparently never publicly admitted it.

3) While relaxing on the couch in my living room with my eyes closed, someone began speaking to me in a dream. He said that I should write a post about "Why the Just have Wisdom," that I should use the verse in Luke in which this theme is introduced [Luke 1:17 "and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared."], and then also the other verse in the Old Testament.

Upon composing that post and researching online, I noticed a really deep commentary that suggested strong Biblical reasons for interpreting "the disobedient" as referring not to the generation of the time of Jesus and John the Baptist, but as referring to the disobedient children of Jacob.

I would like you to know that this kind of direction from some unnamed source in the spirit world is not at all usual for me, and actually has never happened before or since.

The particular theme would only seem to have relevance in the current situation as referring to the "disobedient sons and daughters of True Parents" and the loyal members as "the just."

4) Another "answer" came to me at the end of one week in which I was not on the Internet, but was wondering if there would be anything valid at all of Hyung-Jin Nim's position against True Mother. That Friday I turned on the computer for the first time that week [Sept. 25, 2015] and immediately noticed as the first post at the top of my Home page a post from Mary Jane Dupres on "Here's a wave Hello to you . . .", from exactly 13 years to the day earlier Sept. 25 2002 on notes from HDK with Father after listening to True Mother's speech via the Internet.

The relevant point was my recollection of a message I received in a dream before attending the HDK with Father:

'I went to four of these [HDK's] last week and this week. Before the invitation came by e-mail from the state or regional church director, I had a dream about True Father in which he said, "Maybe it was easy for you to unite with True Father, but you also have to make unity with True Mother.'"

5) Then of course the most definitive answer to the Sanctuary Church claims is that they simply are in denial of basic Divine Principle and Father's explanation about the meaning of God's Day from its inception after True Mother's victory in the 1960's, after which True Parent's entered the Direct Dominion of God, which happens after the 3 stages of growth and then "Return to One Body With God" in the 4th stage. "One Body With God" is return to the Origin Stage and is the meaning of iLshim + iLshin = iLChai, which Father explained on May 1, 1998 at the 44th Anniversary of HSA-UWC that we could forget everything else, even Divine Principle, but to never forget this.

In other words, once we enter the Direct Dominion of the Love of God, we are "One Body With God." It is then impossible to fall from this state because of the absoluteness and perfection of the Principle.

Recall that this is also one of the reasons why God did not interfere with the Fall of Man - for the sake of the absoluteness and perfection of the Principle of Creation.

If He had interfered, it would have nullified the Original Principle and the Human Portion of Responsibility, on which the Parent/Child relationship as axis of the Universe depends.

PS, Feel free to repost this anyplace you feel called to do so.