Parents Matching Convocation

Hello Everyone!

The time has come for the Parents Matching Convocation on August 6-7.

Parents Matching Convocation

It is finally the time for a parent's matching convocation here at Unification Theological Seminary (UTS). The beauty of the blessing has been important to a lot of parents and this is the location to network with each other. The program starts at 8 am on Saturday morning, August 6th, and the program will end the next day on Sunday at 3:30 pm. The profile rooms will be open for a good portion of the program and even past the program till 5 pm on Sunday evening. If you decide to stay the night prior please notify us below in the form. Talk with your family and pray for the success of your candidate and share with other parents the power of the blessing.

FOR MATCHING SUPPORTER TRAINING ATTENDEES: If you decide to stay for the matching supporter training either to become a matching supporter, continue your matching supporter status, or just for the information, then please join 1 pm on August 5 and you will be asked to help with a few sessions during the weekend of the PMC. Also feel free to submit (along with their permission) a candidate for the PMC. Join us at: 30 Seminary Drive, Barrytown, NY, 12507

Extra important Info: We can share your child's profile with permission during the PMC however, candidate/applicant will not be able start a conversation phase with another without first getting a Blessing Interview. This is in accordance with international BFM Rules.
