2023 International Youth Service Project

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

We are delighted to announce the commencement of the International Youth Service Project Program, co-sponsored by South and North America Sustainable Development for World Peace and IRFF. This initiative provides young individuals from across the globe with a remarkable opportunity to engage in community service, immerse themselves in diverse cultures through overseas activities, and foster global experiences.

We would like to present the details of the project as follows:

Duration: July 14th - July 30th (17 days)

*The last day departs from Asunción on the evening of July 30, arriving in New York on the afternoon of July 31.

Activity Area: Pantanal, Paraguay (Experience Eco-tourism in Leda and participate in service projects in an Indian village)

Activities: Engage in service projects at schools, participate in joint tree-planting activities, and partake in cultural exchanges in the Chaco region. Additionally, experience service activities, explore nature, engage in study groups, and enjoy horseback riding and fishing in Leda.

Eligibility: Men and women between the ages of 18 and 30 who possess good health and self-confidence.

Application Requirements: Submit an essay (300 characters or less) on the theme "Motivation for participation and future dreams." Additionally, include a letter of recommendation.

Website: For further information, please visit our website at www.ledaproject.com/general-7

Number of Participants: We are accepting approximately 10 applicants.

Participation Fee: $1,000 (participants are responsible for their round-trip expenses from home to Asunción)

Application Deadline: July 1st

Application Link: To apply, please visit www.ledaproject.com/general-7 or contact johngehring2@gmail.com.

We strongly encourage enthusiastic individuals to take advantage of this life-changing opportunity. The International Youth Service Project Program aims to empower youth, promote cross-cultural understanding, and make a positive impact on communities in need.

Should you have any questions or require further clarification, please don't hesitate to reach out to us at the provided contact information.

Thank you for your attention, and we look forward to receiving your applications.
