Foundation Chairman No Hi Pak's Speech

At the inauguration ceremony Foundation Chairman No Hi Pak asked the audience to give a round of applause of gratitude and encouragement to Chairman Kook Jin Moon and emphasized "I will continue to develop the principles and system that former Chairman Kook Jin Moon put in place, and will work hard to develop the programs that have been running allowing them to take root."

Also, "Just as we learned in Divine Principle of a healthy person having unified harmony of the mind and body, and as True Mother (President Han Hak Ja) spoke of 'the foundation is like the body, and the church is like the mind' we will be true to our name as a 'foundation that maintains' by playing a supporting role. He determined "to protect the foundations all over the world, create as much profit as possible and fulfill the mission of contributing to the providence."
