

Jesus' Message on Covid 19 and Hak Ja Han

Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have declared with your mouths, and have fulfilled it with your hands, saying, 'We will surely perform our vows that we have made, to make offerings to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings to her.' Then confirm your vows and perform your vows! Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no more be invoked by the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'As the Lord GOD lives.' Behold, I am watching over them for disaster and not for good. All the men of Judah who are in the land of them. Jeremiah 44:24-27

Crown of Glory

*When I doubt people, I feel pain. When I judge people, it is unbearable.
When I hate people, there is no value to my existence.*

Yet if I believe, I am deceived. If I love, I am betrayed Suffering and grieving tonight, my head in my hands. Am I wrong?

*Yes I am wrong. Even though we are deceived, still believe,
Though we are betrayed, still forgive. Love completely, even those who hate you.*

*Wipe your tears away and welcome with a smile Those who know nothing but deceit,
And those who betray without regret.*

*O, Master, the pain of loving. Look at my hands.
Place your hand on my chest. My heart is bursting, such agony.*

*But when I love those who acted against me, I brought victory.
If you have done the same things, I will give you the Crown of Glory.*

Sun Myung Moon, 1935

Dear

Hyung Jin Nim started the service by asking me to share a message that was given to a prayer group of mostly FFWPU members from Jesus. He said he is definitely not a fan of mediums, but it is clear that Hak Ja Han is being rebuked by Jesus and the spirit world.

Sanctuary Church Sunday Service 4/19/20

Here is Pier-Angelo Beltrami's report on a 2 hour phone meeting of FFWPU members that took place on 4/13/20 with a sister channeling Jesus who gave the following message about Hak Ja Han:

Tell the leaders that Heavenly Father and True Father took away Hak Ja Han's position so she won't have any more adverse effects on the Earth. The Covid 19 virus is a demon attacking Earth. It's her misuse of her position that wreaked havoc on Earth. The position of True Parents is officially bequeathed to Hyung Jin Nim. He needs to understand this. Hak Ja Han was taken out of the position on 4/4/20. She was demoted to the status of civilian. Now is the time that Hyung Jin Nim will have more power to effect change on Earth in the True Parents position as their representative. This will change the energy of Earth.

Report and reflection by PierAngelo afterwards: We got done about 30 minutes ago and the meeting was very interesting, so I better report it to you now.

Right from the beginning the medium prayed and in that prayer she mentioned the fact that Corona virus came because of the destructive behaviors of Hak Ja Han. That set the tone for the rest of the meeting. The mood was serious for everyone was still shocked by the prayer.

Jesus was very kind but direct in his answers. He said COVID-19 is a man-made virus used by Satan to disseminate fear, and the people who buy into fear are prime candidates for succumbing to the deadly virus.

Then it got hotter. One member who questioned the mentioning of Hak Ja Han being the cause of COVID-19, proceeded in an impassioned talk about her. At that point Jesus said that the wrong behavior of HJH has caused many problems in the world and that she has to repent. The questioning continued with the member asking if it was truly Jesus speaking or some other entity. He politely asked if it was ok to ask Jesus if it was Jesus speaking.

Jesus said "ask the question the right way," which would mean asking Jesus everything in the name of Sun Myung Moon. So the brother proceeded to ask (3 times) if it was really Jesus speaking through Elise. The answers were emphatically YES! (3 times). Satisfied of the answer the member proceeded to ask why he (Jesus) could not appreciate Hak Ja Han's world tour and the "wonderful" work she's doing, and why he seemed to support Sanctuary Church.

At this point Jesus asked me (PierAngelo) to explain Sanctuary's point of view on Hak Ja Han. Caught by surprise I started with a list of her misdeeds and the changes she made against True Father's directions. As I was explaining the events of True Father's last few days on earth and the insistence of HJH in wanting to terminate his life by removing life support (prevented because of opposition by Hyung Jin Nim, Kook Jin Nim, and Bo Hi Pak). I started to break down in tears... eventually I ended my report by denouncing the greatest sin of all...the kicking out of True Father's heir and His lineage after he clearly coronated Hyung Jin Nim 3 times...was it because we were so hard-headed?" I asked.

The member insisted that poor mother may have made some mistakes but in the end her life-long support of True Father may exonerate her from her transgressions and trespassing.... we debated a little more until Jesus put an end to this discussion and resumed the order of the meeting.

However, he suggested that every member who is interested in helping to create unity in the church should create a folder in their desktop containing newsletters for the SC-FFWP and GPF and pray for unity over that border.

At the end I (PierAngelo) was asked to pray and the questioning member followed. Just before terminating the zoom call many people thanked me for the emotional report and prayer. One brother called me afterwards to thank me for the sincerity of my short talk and promised to go over the topic again soon.

IN CONCLUSION. It was a tough and emotionally draining two hours but I think most members were not aware of what went on in Korea even prior to True Father's ascension or the true story of Hyung Jin Nim's ouster from the church.

Jesus was asking for a Sanctuary newsletter, but I think the weekly email newsletters could be a useful reference tool that I could send out to every "trinity" member, as per Jesus' instructions. (View Sanctuary USA emails 2015-2020)

Then Hyung Jin Nim discussed the Bible passage in Jeremiah 44 in which God dispersed and judged the Israelites who were worshipping the Babylonian "queen of heaven."

He also showed an Epoch Times documentary on Tracking Down the Source of the Covid 19 Virus. Communism wants to degrade morality in society. Immoral people are more easily dominated and used. They will not object to immoral acts by government as long as they receive benefits, essentially becoming complicit in their own slavery.

Bill Gates is major funder of Imperial College of London whose researcher Neil Ferguson made the alarming prediction that 2.2 million would die in the U.S. from Covid 19, leading to worldwide quarantine measures that have decimated human freedoms and national economies. The actual number is likely to be about 50 times less.

Epoch Times Documentary on Covid 19

Our civil liberties are being destroyed. In California police arrested a man who was paddle boarding in the Pacific Ocean. In Australia a man was fined for eating lunch by himself on a park bench. Fear of Covid 19 leads to people giving up their freedoms. Hospitals are being told to put "Covid 19" on death certificates even without confirmation because of greater federal funding for Covid 19 deaths.

Through the forced quarantine which has put millions out of work, we are committing economic suicide so that more will become dependent on government with long food lines, etc.

Hyung Jin Nim studied both ancient Chinese and Mandarin for 4-5 years. During True Father's speaking tours he would always go to the local China Town. The Chinese people he knows all hate the Communist Party dictators. It is shocking that the Leftist media in the West is covering for CCP, the Chinese Communist Party.

Since the USA has been transferring Western manufacturing and technology to China for decades, it has become dangerously reliant for supply chains of many products that originate in China.

The government's role is not to order and punish people for not wearing a mask. More people will die from unemployment leading to suicide, alcoholism, etc. During the Revolutionary War there was a smallpox epidemic, but they didn't self-quarantine, they kept on fighting.

Leftists want the quarantine to go on as long as possible so that more Americans will become dependent on government. They prefer the Chinese Communist model of surveillance and control. But more and more Christians are waking up and becoming interested to know more about the Rod of Iron Kingdom. The CIG Constitution makes it clear that the Kingdom will be one of freedom and responsibility, not dependency on government. God's Kingdom is coming, but there will be many rocks in the road. Get ready.

Lucifer Would Not Serve The Son

by Jim Stephens, April 17, 2020

This article will be about fallen nature #1 that we all inherited from Lucifer. It's one that we need to constantly be aware of in our spiritual growth. Lucifer did not take God's point of view and would not serve or follow God's son. What can we learn from this and how does it apply to our daily lives?

Our True Father, Sun Myung Moon, revealed to us the process and motivations behind the Fall of Man. He detailed the Four Fallen Natures which we inherited from Lucifer, Adam, and Eve. This truth has given us an extremely useful measuring stick for comparing our thoughts and actions to see if they are leading us to God's side or Satan's side.

As we know, God created Adam and Eve as His children and intended to bequeath all Creation to them. However, as the time approached for them to take full authority, Lucifer began to balk. It appeared he was going to lose his long-standing position and controlling authority in the cosmos. He was going to have to humble himself under the authority of Adam and Eve.

We can all understand those feelings because we have been placed in a similar situation in our lives. We've had to choose between a God-centered path and a self-centered path. Unfortunately, throughout history most people rarely, if ever, think about bringing God into their decision-making processes.

Examples are everywhere. Literature and movies all through history are full of examples of the God, Lucifer, and Adam scenario. A King designates his young son as his heir, but when it's time for the heir to take over, then there is a huge struggle for the power and assets in the kingdom.

True Father amassed a fortune of billions of dollars and hundreds of organizations and businesses throughout the world.

I think you are incredibly naïve if you imagine there was no free-for-all among the elites of our church when Father passed. It would be natural for everyone to at least be concerned about their own job. That's self-preservation. Not only that, but how many might have higher ambitions? Who doesn't want more money, more authority? Does anyone believe that the leaders are all perfect angels?

How many leaders thought about God first? If you were in that situation, would you be thinking about God's Will?

Fallen Nature #1 is Failure to Take God's Point of View.

"Not my will, but your will be done." Matt 26:39.

I assert that what True Father expressed as God's Will is the closest we can get to God's Point of View. I assume you will agree. So what was Father's proclamation of God's Will until he ascended? And can we humble ourselves to it and repent if we have been pursuing our own point of view. What did True Father want to happen? What did he say?

Remembering True Mother Kang on a Spring Day

by Miho Panzer

Last Tuesday we had early spring weather, so the 2nd King and Queen invited the prayer team to the palace. The cherry trees were blossoming in such a beautiful way! After I sat down under one of the trees, I began to be aware of True Father and True Mother sitting there. They had big smiles.

On March 18, 2019 we observed True Mother Kang's Cosmic Seonghwa ceremony. I felt like this was a long time ago, but it was just one year ago.

We visited the Bo Hwang Won yesterday after the Sunday service. When we had the Wonjun ceremony there last year I brought a wild flowers basket for her because her image is like a wild flower. Cosmos. Margarets. Violets.

Wild flowers are very strong. Even if we step on them they spring back up. Even in the cold weather they survive. Just like the Kang Mother. Even in her 90s she left the comfort of her home in Korea and spent two years in the palace. She was the first disciple of True Father in South Korea. She is the lead bride of Christ even now.

She used to come down to watch the King's Report every morning with brothers and sisters. She was often tired so I did light touch massage on her back, shoulder, hands and feet. One day I was giving a foot massage to her. Then I began to feel that True Father is inside her. I felt I was touching True Father's feet. I asked her, "don't you feel True Father is inside you now?" She smiled and said, "yes, I feel so, too."

She liked to read True Father's words in the Cheon Seong Gyeong and the Bible next to her bed. One day she opened her Bible in front of me. It was covered with red and blue lines underlining many passages. She explained that each time she read a page she would realize that a different passage was important, so that the whole page became underlined!

Such were my memories under the cherry tree. True Mother Kang was waiting for spring to come. When the cherry blossoms come I can go outside and walk around the garden. I feel True Father and Mother are watching the 2nd King and Queen and all of our families and praying for our victory.

Covid-19 and Our Society's Current Predicament

by Dr. Andrew Combs

In a seriously minded "what the heck just happened" piece, Is Maoist America Here to Stay? in "The American Thinker," Joel Gilbert describes what is going on all around us in the US - a nation catapulted into a shutdown of our society resulting in widespread violations of fundamental civil liberties, carried out by many throughout government and society at large who seem to feel entitled to arbitrary and unlawful tyrannies.

And all of this happened out of fear of a virus. Unfortunately, by believing in medical experts hamstrung by limited data (and possibly seeing no choice as he might fear being driven out politically otherwise) I believe President Trump has blundered into a very dangerous place. It is because in the US we have followed the Chinese totalitarian model of "forced mitigation" (an approach recommended by, among others, the too narrowly focused and increasingly self-important Anthony Fauci, and his tunnel-visioned mentee Deborah Birx). This method defers infections (thus deaths) in the near term while it avoids solving the virus problem (inevitable infections from a highly contagious respiratory pathogen) in the long term. Its purpose is to avoid overwhelming the health system (and buy time to develop a good vaccine), but it has cost us our civil liberties as a side-effect - relative health safety at the price of transient totalitarianism.

I use the term "tunnel-visioned" because forced sheltering as a prescription has severe side-effects: financial stress, spousal abuse, drugs and drinking, suicides, and the "models" of viral spread don't take that into account. Neither do the models of disease spread, nor seemingly do Fauci and Birx - but they should know better. I am sure they both pride themselves on a person's whole health - how about the population's whole health?

Covid-19 and Our Society's Current Predicament

by Dr. Andrew Combs

In a seriously minded "what the heck just happened" piece, Is Maoist America Here to Stay? in "The American Thinker," Joel Gilbert describes what is going on all around us in the US - a nation catapulted into a shutdown of our society resulting in widespread violations of fundamental civil liberties, carried out by many throughout government and society at large who seem to feel entitled to arbitrary and unlawful tyrannies.

And all of this happened out of fear of a virus. Unfortunately, by believing in medical experts hamstrung by limited data (and possibly seeing no choice as he might fear being driven out politically otherwise) I believe President Trump has blundered into a very dangerous place. It is because in the US we have followed the Chinese totalitarian model of "forced mitigation" (an approach recommended by, among others, the too narrowly focused and increasingly self-important Anthony Fauci, and his tunnel-visioned mentee Deborah Birx). This method defers infections (thus deaths) in the near term while it avoids solving the virus problem (inevitable infections from a highly contagious respiratory pathogen) in the long term. Its purpose is to avoid overwhelming the health system (and buy time to develop a good vaccine), but it has cost us our civil liberties as a side-effect - relative health safety at the price of transient totalitarianism.

I use the term "tunnel-visioned" because forced sheltering as a prescription has severe side-effects: financial stress, spousal abuse, drugs and drinking, suicides, and the "models" of viral spread don't take that into account. Neither do the models of disease spread, nor seemingly do Fauci and Birx – but they should know better. I am sure they both pride themselves on a person's whole health – how about the population's whole health?

The forced mitigation model our nation has embarked on is not the only approach to minimize negative health consequences. In fact, it stands in stark contrast to the more benign Swedish model which is based on the guidance of their chief epidemiologist Anders Tengell. The Swedish method deals head-on with the virus itself. Its purpose is to eliminate the virus from the population by establishing herd immunity (where 60-80% of population gains antibodies so the virus can't easily infect the next person – i.e., lowering the "R" or "replication" factor below one) while at the same time keeping society open and isolating/protecting the most vulnerable. Commerce and business proceeds mostly as normal, children go to schools, people are out and about enjoying life.

The Sweden model incurs suffering, sure - people get sick, many have died as in America. Surprisingly, however, the deaths per capita population are not much different than in the US – Sweden is at 0.014%, the US at 0.011% (i.e., about 14 and 11 per 100,000 respectively). Indeed, Sweden is doing better than many of our states that have sheltered in place. This very curious fact may in part due to what is increasingly believed to be a key source of virus transfer - not only from surfaces, or from touching, but from breathing an atmosphere in enclosed spaces for long times with an infected person or persons who literally pollute the air not only by coughing, but by speaking or even breathing. So, being outside is fine – closing parks and open spaces looks increasingly stupid. (And today I learned of the announcement by the People’s Republic of the Bay Area in California that one must wear masks at all time if one leaves home – even for a walk in the fresh air of our suburban neighborhood. Hmm ... I thought it was all about social distancing ...)

As a result of our choices in the US, what we are enjoying a taste of what a Maoist, or any Marxist, society experiences with central control with the worst of human nature coming to the fore in petty tyrants running amok all over society - from the governors, to the mayors, police and police chiefs, to heads of businesses down to the local "police" who keep people spaced "properly" and maintain the lines at Costco, Target and Safeway.

So, now, We now have long lines at stores, increasingly empty shelves not getting restocked (increased hoarding, causing the supply chain to falter), unconstitutional unlawful crackdowns on assembly, religious practice (to the point of non-legislative criminalization by executive fiat punishable by fines or 14-day imprisonment by house arrest) and gun purchasing (even "lawn item" purchasing in Michigan) by self-appointed autocrats who have decided what is essential and what is not ... It is even being discussed to require that people carry "papers" to certify if we can go back to work or not (based on established immunity) and likely also, who will be able to travel and to where. (In communist states, “privacy” and the “private life” is dead.) Such a dystopian vision reminds me of a WWII era movie of a Nazi Gestapo agent approaching an individual to threateningly demand in a thick German accent “Your papers please!”. Some government executives have even encouraged citizens to report neighbors they think are violating distancing or stay-at-home orders. This “encouraging one to inform” on one’s neighbor was an extraordinarily effective approach perfected by the Gestapo which instills mistrust of one's own neighbor (talk about social distancing!) and an overall atmosphere of paranoia.

Yet, all of this avoids solving the underlying problem which is our vulnerability to the virus itself. Tengell of Sweden, and Knut Wittkowski, epidemiologist formerly of Rockefeller University, say establishing herd immunity is the only way to deal with such a highly contagious respiratory disease, short of an effective vaccine. Expose the population, protect the vulnerable, and you'll be done with it for good in a couple of months. Mitigation, on the other hand, actually impedes herd immunization. It prevents the health-care system from being overwhelmed – true – but it doesn’t prevent infections. The virus’s contagiousness is sufficiently high that it will almost certainly find its way into every nook and cranny of life until it saturates (to 60-80% of the population) and self-extinguishes.

And where are we now regarding the herd? Current data based on pregnant women in New York City (NYC) indicates about 15% of the population of NYC has immunity already (that is about 12 times the case infection rate - this also implies mortality is much closer than we thought to the seasonal flu)¹. That means herd immunity has a factor of 4-5 to go before NYC is really immune to new cycles of infection. If that factor were applied to US infections as a whole, it implies only 2% of the US population has developed immunity. Based on the forced mitigation precedent, we can expect to be shut down again and again in waves until herd-immunity stops it - it is insanity! Mass hysteria! ... It could continue this way until a vaccine is available (which is a year and a half off at minimum according to health experts). And the longer it goes on, the more likely the mutations will be, and the more difficult to get a comprehensive vaccine.

And, while surely God wants to inspire leaders of the world, and has surely inspired Donald Trump throughout his Presidency, leaders have no choice but to look to others who are experts. But, if the experts are wrong, then great error can happen. I am increasingly convinced the health experts Trump has listened to are wrong, and it caused him to (with all good intentions - though we know how that often pans out) push mitigation under Fauci's and Birx's guidance which has been disastrous to civil liberties and our republic, to say nothing of people and enterprises having been pushed out of work ...

It should also give us pause about who is right when we realize the major media outlets have been pushing us to do more mitigation, more extreme measures and nationwide shutdowns, severely questioning the wisdom of opening our society too soon. The liberal media is almost always wrong and nearly always pushes us toward a bad direction ... and Fauci is speaking of getting back to normal after, and I paraphrase his public statement "when we get down to around zero new cases" (when will that be ... many months?!). Can our freedom loving capitalist society bear this? Can we (will we) continue to bear the insults and harm done to our freedoms by (mostly) liberal petty tyrant executives?

I hope I'm wrong. It may be that mitigation is a benign, necessary, massive move little or no permanent damage to our republic. But the short-term damage is already there - judges and legislators are for the most part sheltering in place - missing in action. It is the executives that can act (and have acted) unilaterally and often destructively. Worse, this is precedent setting ... the left has used climate change and poor early modeling results to predict extreme, apocalyptic consequences without getting much movement over decades to control society, but by scaring us with death (as per the leftist Club of Rome's stated methods) we've established a Maoist-like society in 30 days!

It is like Mao's and Ayers' Prairie Fire (see the Gilbert article) - the single event that can realize a revolutionary change overnight. And what is the next event that would mobilize our executives to issue fiat orders for? A warm spell or drought that triggers shuttering of gas stations as they pose an "existential threat" to our environment? Large protests of violations of our civil liberties that might be seen as a "danger to public safety" leading to military like crackdowns, fines, imprisonments (based upon no established law)? Civil disobedience of churchgoers who physically assemble in New York in spite of Mayor DeBlasio's threat to close their places of worship permanently. Instances of "hate speech" (whatever that is) where citizenry is encouraged to report it using 911? (that is happening in Seattle as reported on Fox recently). Or "suspicious activity" spun out of whole-cloth by leading to the destruction of lives by a government's abuse of power in order to investigate and punish political opponents (Communism 101, Nazism 101) ... Oh wait ... I forgot, we've experiencing this since mid-2016 in the Russia hoax, the Mueller report, the Ukraine fiction - even earlier with the Obama administration's use of the IRS against conservative non-profit applications, and what appears to be complicit oversight of intelligence and law enforcement abuses of our institutions to spy on and dis-inform our electorate about our President ...

Again, I hope I'm wrong, but I worry that we may have to fight yet again for our freedom as our fathers and fore-fathers have ... through the courts, or en-masse in public outcry (take a listen to this remarkable interview - Judge Napolitano on Tucker Carlson's show Napolitano slams leaders: We're witnessing slow death of civil liberties)

PS - To their credit, Drs Fauci and Birx have consistently bemoaned the lack of data. Based on initial estimates of mortality, the case mortality rate seemed to be running between two and ten percent. But there was the “denominator problem”: we knew the deaths (despite being skewed by the “assigning cause of death” problem) but didn’t have enough testing to know the true infection rate. This led Fauci to claim during a televised press conference that Covid-19 is 10 times as deadly as the Flu (scaring the bleep out of people). Furthermore, lacking facts, they relied on models (computer simulations), which turned out to be highly inaccurate to the high side (doubly scaring the bleep out of people) – reminiscent of many computer models predicting wildly inaccurate forecasts of global warming. The models (even those that include mitigation) have now dropped predictions of total deaths from as much as 240,000 to about 60,000 (as they were adjusted to reflect real time data). That is a big factor off ... Fauci has been patting his (and America's) backs to say "mitigation works" - but not so fast - it could be that the models themselves were bad (beyond bad, but destructively inaccurate) due to poor assumptions – the evidence is not yet clear. Furthermore, “flattening the curve” doesn’t impact direct mortality – only incidental mortality due to overwhelming the health system. Direct mortality (i.e., given patients are “well cared for”) is just drawn out in the mitigation model – not suppressed. That is, mitigation saves lives only by avoiding a healthcare services crises, not by avoiding infections. We will get infected to about 60-80% cumulatively. Without a vaccine, there is no avoiding it.

¹Update - Interestingly, as reported by Tucker Carlson on Fox News, tests just done in Santa Clara California show that, relative to the total population, the “real infection rate” is 50-85 times the “confirmed case” infection rate. These tests go to the denominator problem – the denominator of the mortality rate may be 50-85 times bigger, so the real mortality rate would be 0.2% to 0.02%!! That puts it in flu territory as far as its real mortality rate (or even possibly much less deadly than the flu).

In the US the confirmed case rate is about 2 out of a thousand of total population (0.2%); if we are actually a factor of 50-85 more in infections, it is 10% to 17% of the population. Unfortunately, that still leaves us well short of herd infection (60-80%), which is what we need to avoid new outbreaks. In summary, covid-19 may have mortality on the order of or significantly less than, the seasonal flu. Based on the guidance of models and experts acting on little data, we have acted precipitously based more on fear than reason.

People such as Fauci and Birx should’ve been able to advise us better relative to the “denominator” problem and the limitations of models. They should’ve advised our leaders, especially the President, that it was unclear that the Swedish model would do any worse than the Chinese totalitarian model. That they haven’t has cost us dearly and will continue to cost us if we don’t wake up to the efficacy of the Swedish model that avoids “mitigation’s” downside of financial stress, even ruin, and its terrible consequences that are hurting so many in our land.

"Not my will, but your will be done." Matt 26:39.

I assert that what True Father expressed as God's Will is the closest we can get to God's Point of View. I assume you will agree. So what was Father's proclamation of God's Will until he ascended? And can we humble ourselves to it and repent if we have been pursuing our own point of view.

What did True Father want to happen? What did he say?

There will always be a physical representative of the True Father here on earth, from one generation to another; there will be that axis on which the earth will turn. Therefore, all of you here on earth and all the people in the generations to come will be centered upon the same axis.

Sun Myung Moon, "Parents, Children and the World Centered Upon Oneself," June 5, 1983; Tarrytown, New York, God's Will and the World (1985), p. 649

After that registration is done, True Father will appoint his successor. That successor must be known to all the Unification Church, all the blessed couples and the True Parents' family. They must all unanimously accept him. Once that successor is determined, the law or constitution of the Heavenly Kingdom shall be laid down to guide all activities. The law will guide heavenly citizens here on earth and into the Kingdom of Heaven in heaven.

Sun Myung Moon, "Parents, Children and the World Centered Upon Oneself," June 5, 1983; Tarrytown, New York, God's Will and the World (1985), p. 651

True Father's main providential responsibility was to establish God's Lineage on the earth which Adam and Eve failed to accomplish. From his words we can see how important his lineage is for the world. In many speeches he spoke about "love, life, and lineage" but explained lineage was the most important.

Father clearly did establish his “physical representative” and his “successor,” for all the world to see, even “generations to come.” That was his son, Hyung Jin. Father performed three crowning ceremonies on two different continents to establish his successor so there would be no doubt for “all the blessed couples and the True Parents family.”

Today, at this time, there must only be one line of authority. The center, centered on Korea or on the world, over the entire Unification Church will stretch out and become larger. From now, I can leave someone in charge of my work on my behalf. Currently, there is no one among our church members who surpasses Hyung Jin in his standard of faith or in any other way. Do you understand? I am appointing him.

Sun Myung Moon, April 16, 2008; Korea

Hyung Jin Moon and Yeon Ah Lee, these two, this son and daughter, a couple, are standing before the True Parents. At this time of transition today, this occasion is one where they can inherit the authority as the representatives and heirs who can attend to everything on behalf of True Parents.

Sun Myung Moon’s prayer at transition ceremony, April 28, 2008

True Father was also aware that there would be problems for people with Fallen Nature #1 to accept his appointment.

When the father transfers what he owns to his son, it is comparable to the rightful heir supervising all the yield of the harvest. No matter how young or youthful the heir is, he is the one who will supervise and control. Likewise, when the inheritance is passed on, it does not matter who is better or worse. When Father hands down this authority in the future, even if that heir is crippled, people must receive the Blessing from that person. That time will come.

Sun Myung Moon, "Who Determines The Spouse," Blessing and Ideal Family (p. 258)

In April, 2008, True Father appointed Hyung Jin Nim as his heir and successor. From that point on Father trained him. Father authorized Hyung Jin’s couple to give all future Blessings. Hyung Jin was almost always required to be around Father. Father educated him. Father shared with him his whole self. Father prepared him. Does anyone doubt that? How could you?

Father appointed him the International President of the whole church.

Then two years later, Father doubled down on what he wanted... in his own hand writing.

Moreover, the command center of cosmic peace and unity is the absolute and unique command center. Its representative and heir is Hyung Jin Moon. Anybody else [who claims such a position] would be a heretic and one who brings things to destruction.

Sun Myung Moon, written by his own hand, June 5, 2010; Korea

So let’s ask, once again, who was supposed to follow and support the son and designated heir? Clearly Father wanted all the members to support Hyung Jin Nim, including the members of his family and that included the Mother, Hak Ja Han.

During this time we know that Hak Ja Han was not spending much time with True Father, preferring to stay at the palace, often watching Korean soap operas for hours.

It has also been reported by many that Father and Mother argued often and could be heard screaming at each other upstairs in their bedroom. Regis Hanna gave testimony that staff members told him about Father shouting at her that he could divorce her anytime. <https://youtu.be/e9XQUfuZCV8?t=1410>

True Father ascended in early September, 2012. Hyung Jin Nim got sent to America on September 19, 2012, to clean up the mess created by In Jin’s adultery. Within weeks, if not days, he was fired from his position as International President. By the middle of October, Kook Jin Nim was also asked by Hak Ja Han to leave his position as President of Tong Il.

Early in 2013, 5 months later, Hak Ja Han fired Hyung Jin Nim from his leadership position in America. His letter says he was starting a ministry on Absolute Sex, which he believed was Father’s core message.

As you know True Mother announced that we will be let go from our role as president of HSA-UWC America. My wife and I were a little surprised as this is the third time that we have been "let go of" since Father's ascension with no prior guidance or explanation given for termination.

Hyung Jin Moon, "Letter to Unification Church, USA," February 24, 2013

For the last four years Hyung Jin Nim had been uniting with True Father, following him with absolute faith, absolute love, and absolute obedience. True Father was so very proud of him.

Now suddenly we are told he is "rebellious and disobedient." Huh? Was he really being disobedient to True Father? Or was he being disobedient to Hak Ja Han? And was she going against the True Father that he knew?

As hard as it is to do, ask yourself if maybe she had a problem. Maybe she could not follow the son. Obviously she didn't. Wasn't that Lucifer's sin? If she is following the designated son, how could she be stripping him of all his positions and casting him out, not even allowing him to get his possessions from his room, including the crown his father gave him?

The circle of elders around Hak Ja Han conspired with her to maintain their power and wealth knowing that if Hyung Jin Nim and Kook Jin Nim cleaned up the church, corruption would be exposed. They mostly chose not to follow the son.

Church leaders throughout the world were duped by Hak Ja Han claiming to be "one" with True Father and a direct channel to his will. But when she started doing things that he warned us NEVER to do, it became obvious to many of us that she was not a channel to True Father at all, but something quite different. There was a spiritual fog everywhere. Could she be betraying Father? It was unthinkable.

Most members just went along to get along, trying to stay in their comfort zones. The result was that most did not follow the son either. A few incredibly brave souls did risk everything to follow the son. One outstanding example is Hyun Shil Kang, the "mother" of our church who had been with Father since the mud hut days in Pusan. She risked her life to escape Korea at her advanced age and come to the wilderness in Pennsylvania. Also Yasue Erikawa in Japan made the hard decision to follow the son.

Another brave soul is Rev. Jeong-Ok Yu, who Father personally appointed the teacher of the Original Substance of Divine Principle. He testifies that Father told him at least twice that Hak Ja Han was betraying him. Rev. Yu absolutely rejects the Only Begotten Daughter heresy.

Lucifer would not follow the son, God's chosen one. He loved his position and his power. He loved the praises of others. He loved authority over assets that belonged to God. He manipulated Eve into betraying God and passed along his feelings and justifications. With his intelligence he accused the Father and justified all his own actions.

The Archangel fell because he did not love Adam: rather, he envied Adam, who was receiving more love from God than he. This was the cause of the first primary characteristic of the fallen nature: failing to take God's standpoint. To remove this characteristic of the fallen nature, Cain, who stood in the Archangel's position, should have taken God's standpoint by loving Abel (Hyung Jin Nim), who stood in Adam's (True Father's) position....

The Archangel fell because he did not respect Adam (True Father) as God's mediator and did not receive God's love through him; rather, he attempted to seize Adam's position.

There might be fame and fortune for a while on this earth. But betraying God's son is the most fearful decision you can make in this life.

"For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me and for the gospel will save it."
Mark 8:35
