He will wipe away every tear!

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, the dwelling place[a] of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.” Revelation 21:3-4

Human history has been the struggle of God to restore His rightful ownership over all things. Satan claimed ownership of all things by claiming dominion over human love. Until now, God could not claim true ownership over all things and this has been the worst tragedy for humanity. The turning point for human history is the day of hope when the Messiah comes, endowed with the power to restore the world with true love. In that way he will return true ownership of the world back to God, once and for all. Sun Myung Moon, Day of All Things, May 31, 1984

Hello,

At this week’s Sunday Service, Lowell shared the video of his testimony interview with Yeonah Nim. He started by speaking about True Father’s life working at the Pusan pier praying for the world while looking out on the Pacific ocean in 1951. Lowell was born in 1952 and realized he was likely conceived during the time Father was in Pusan praying for future followers across the ocean.

At age 5, Lowell heard a voice “Christ is Returned, Christ is on Earth, He’s building the Kingdom of Heaven, which will be fulfilled by year 2000. The year 1975 is going to be a very important year for you...”

God is working, but so is Satan. He is always lurking, seeking to destroy the ones that God wants to use. At age 15, when Lowell was at a Christian camp, he was approached by a music professor named Bob Erickson at a nearby university. He spoke to him in a very inappropriate way, asking if he liked to watch pornography. He was a disciple of Alfred Kinsey, and used Kinsey’s information to justify pedophilic relationships. He sexually abused and raped Lowell over a 6 month period.

He decided to make a new start by moving to Fargo, North Dakota. He got a job welding, but still was alcoholic. Satan was whispering to him to commit suicide and to murder others, but he told himself he didn't want to kill anyone. He attended an Alcoholic Anonymous meeting, but was going to leave. Near the door another man said to him, "I can tell the living hell you are going through. It's not because you are a bad person, you have a disease, but you can be healed of that."

Over a year, the AA meetings helped him a lot. He was reading the Bible repeatedly and staying sober. He had an experience where he left his body and had an amazing encounter with Jesus.

In May 1975 he met a sister from the Unification Church and heard the Divine Principle. He joined the church. He was a CARP leader in the SW region. While attending the CARP convention in Korea. At the Rock of Tears near Pusan harbor God told him the only reason you didn't die was because of True Father's prayers.

Another time he was walking in a field and couldn't see. God told him, "I am blind to all the things that happened in your life before." In Revelation 21:4, it talks about how God will take away every tear from the eyes of the faithful.

In 1992, Lowell was the state leader in Virginia. Father called for state leaders to come to Kodiak. Father asked half of the leaders to share about the most difficult experience in his life. Lowell shared about his painful experiences, but also testified directly to Father that he is the returning Christ. The next day Father grabbed him and had him stand next to him for the group photo. In 2008 Father told the members, “you have to tell people who I am!”

In 2010, Lowell wrote his autobiography, Wrong, Wrecked and Resurrected. Father loves us individually, not just as members of a group.

Father once said that every time he officiated a Blessing ceremony, Satan appeared to him and said, “go ahead and give them the Blessing. I will take them all back with my secret weapons.” Father said, when Satan attacks you, first repent, then cling on to me. Only my foundation can’t be defeated by Satan.” Then go before God, “Heavenly Father, thank you for teaching me this important lesson.”
