this year at Unification Theological Seminary!

UTS is planning Continuing Education courses for the upcoming academic year beginning in September. These are meant to address more practical needs for ministry in the field and will not be solely academic courses, but rather will include a more practical and experiential approach, incorporating personal reflection, discussion and creative learning activities. Many of these will be offered online, or at our NYC location at 43rd street or as intensive courses in cities around the country.
