How to express True Love?

Richard A. Panzer
October 23, 2012

Greetings!

If you've had a chance to visit Barrytown recently, you know about the non-stop renovations going on there. The Barrytown College of UTS project is moving forward at a rapid pace. Once approved and accredited by the New York State Education Department, we will be accepting applications for the Fall, 2013 term.

Many of us believe in the ideal of True Love. But what do those 2 words really mean? And how do you express something that is, after all, hard to define?

We are asking young adult and teen filmmakers to help answer these questions. And to highlight the contributions that we believe students at Barrytown College will be making to Unificationist culture in the years to come, we have launched the which offers prizes of $2,000, $1,000 and $500 for videos that express the theme of "true love." Genre may be fiction, documentary/ interview, or animation. The deadline for submission is January 1, 2013.

For more information and to download an application form, visit 2013 True Love Video Contest. And, please help us by spreading the word to any teenage or young adult filmmakers (ages 15 - 29) you know!
