Barrytown College's First Open House!

Richard A. Panzer

March 12, 2013

Greetings!

Barrytown College held its first successful Open House on March 9, with a sizable group of interested students and parents asking questions about this new Unificationist college, attending 2 sample college lectures and visiting the newly renovated dorms and classrooms in the East Wing.

The next Barrytown College Open House will be held on Saturday, April 13 in (click here) to register. At the April 13 Open House, you will have a chance to meet Dr. Stephen Murray, Dean of the College, Dr. Ann and Rachel Curry who lead the Student Life department, Rhonda Altonen, our library director, and Angie Callwood, who can walk you through the steps for applying and for financial aid. You'll get a taste of some of the innovative courses offered at the college. An "Instant Decision Event" at the Open House will allow students to know on the spot whether they have been admitted.

Barrytown College is already accepting applications for the first, historic Fall 2013 entering class, and to make financial aid offers to student applicants including federal grants, loans and work-study.

Financial aid will also include a generous Founder's Scholarship that covers up to 50% of tuition costs for applicants from Unificationist families as well as other scholarships for outstanding accomplishment.

Barrytown College Become More

For more information, or to apply online, visit the new website! And, please feel free to spread the word to anyone looking for a mind-and-heart-expanding college experience together with other young Unificationists from around the country and globe! Barrytown College is a place to discover your own unique ability to impact the world!

Sincerely,

Richard
