Visit to Maryland this weekend!

Rachel Curry
April 4, 2013

Greetings!

Have you noticed how a typical college campus doesn't always support a spiritually healthy lifestyle? It's sad when a young person goes to college and gets lost in it. It's also sad when someone attains an academic degree but has made little or no progress emotionally or spiritually.

Join me in imagining a place to study that involves the mind and the soul, encourages the development of practical skills and healthy relationships, and simultaneously builds a student's sense of career direction and their self-love... all in an environment where God is present and honored. This is Barrytown College.

Inspired by True Father 30 years ago, Barrytown College opens its doors in THIS fall. 2013 first year students and transfers - this is for you! We are located in scenic upstate NY, so get ready for adventure!

We'll be in Maryland THIS weekend and we look forward to spending some time with you. Come see me and the Admissions Director at youth group on Friday (VA), game night (MD) or at church on Sunday (MD). Bring your completed application to any of these events and you may be eligible for instant decision admission. You may contact us for an individual appointment by calling (or texting) me.

I encourage you to visit our new website, find us on Facebook, or come visit us! We have an Open House event Saturday, April 13th. Register here. (For serious applicants, an Instant Decision Event is from 3-6pm on the same day. Bring any transcripts you have from high school and previously attended colleges, and a completed application accessible on our website.)

Become More at Barrytown College

We are READY to accept applications for the first, historic Fall 2013 entering class, and to make financial aid offers to student applicants including federal grants, loans and work-study.

Financial aid will also include a generous Founder's Scholarship that covers up to 50% of tuition costs for applicants from a Unificationist background.

See you soon!
