"After that registration is done, True Father will appoint his successor. That successor must be known to all the Unification Church, all the blessed couples and the True Parents' family. They must all unanimously accept him. Once that successor is determined, the law or constitution of the Heavenly Kingdom shall be laid down to guide all activities. The law will guide heavenly citizens here on earth and into the Kingdom of Heaven in heaven." Parents, Children and the World Centered Upon Oneself June 5, 1983 -- Tarrytown, New York, God's Will and the World, 1985. Greetings!

At the beginning of Sunday's provocative Nov. 15 sermon on "Living Blood," Hyung Jin Nim discussed attacks at a concert hall, sports stadium and restaurants in Paris by Islamic extremists, which have led to an estimated 129 deaths with 350 injured. Since the entire city of Paris is a virtual "gun-free zone" due to France's "extremely strict weapons laws," there was no one in the concert to defend concert goers who were being gunned down. It took more than 2 hours for the Parisian police to arrive at the concert hall. If the French government trusted its law-abiding citizens to carry weapons, much of the slaughter at diverse locations could likely have been avoided. As examples, he cited the nation of Switzerland where there are high levels of legal gun ownership and very low homicide rates.

In an age of non-state-sponsored terrorism and random crime events, it is not possible for governments to protect individuals without establishing draconian martial laws. The free citizens of CIG should not depend on government, but self-reliantly protect their families.

Hyung Jin Nim also made it clear that the nation of Cheon Il Guk protects religious freedom, including the freedom to be an atheist. That is the freedom that God gave our human ancestors. Regardless of beliefs, all citizens will benefit from the God-given freedoms that limit government power and intrusion on citizens.

Before I discuss the rest of Hyung Jin Nim's sermon and how different reproductive strategies (lineage) impacts our lives, values, and politics, I'd like to share a letter from Kevin Brugman explaining how God led him to resign from his position as the Dallas FFWPU leader in order to support Hyung Jin Nim's ministry as the Dallas Sanctuary coordinator.

FFWPU Resignation Letter-Kevin Brugman, Dallas, TX

To Whom It May Concern:

This is my letter of resignation from the Dallas Family Church/FFWPU. I have been prayerfully reflecting on my initial reasons for joining CARP many years ago, my belief in the teachings of Divine Principle, as well as my belief that True Father came as the Second Coming of Christ.

As I reflected about all of these things together with Tami, we also re-affirmed the love we have for one another and our children; the value and meaning of the 3-day ceremony; and our process of engrafting into the lineage of the messiah. It is through these prayers and reflections, and through much thought and discussion, that I have decided to resign from the FFWPU, and from my position as an assistant pastor of the Dallas Family Church.

After True Father passed away, whenever I thought about him, I could not help but cry. I longed to see commitment to the will of God that he showed throughout his life, and to the teachings that he established, so that all people could eventually be saved and live in his Kingdom.

I see a commitment and love for God's will and ideal; and to the teachings of True Father, from Hyung Jin Nim, that I do not see anywhere else. I feel called by God to support Hyung Jin Nim; because of the love that he shows for God, True Father; and to doing God's will.

I don't believe I can fully support and honor the will of God in the Family Federation; and I believe the teachings of True Father, being persevered by Hyung Jin Nim, provide the best foundation for practicing the ideals of true love, centered on God's original lineage.

Sincerely, Kevin Brugman

In the sermon, Hyung Jin Nim again discussed research about 2 differing reproductive strategies, quantity vs. quality. Rabbits, deer and antelopes reach maturity quickly, reproduce repeatedly, with little care or investment for each of the offspring with single parenthood as the norm. In an unpredictable environment, with little defense against predators, this "r-strategy" is effective for weaker animal species such as rabbits and deer that are unable to defend themselves. They display little or no sadness when one of their group is eaten by a predator.

Other animal species, such as lions, wolves, and owls, have a "K-strategy," in which they embrace competition in order to better prepare for recognized threats in the world, have high investment in offspring, have delayed monogamous pair-bonding, and high-in group loyalty. Those who deviate from the honor codes are ostracized in order to maintain unity and order that protects the survival of the pack. K represents "carrying capacity" for larger animals higher in the food chain which reproduce slowly in order to protect offspring and not exhaust limited food sources. Mating partners must prove their worth, often through fights among the males. Such is the case for cuttle fish, except for a few males who pretend to be female in order to mate with the females.

For humans we pass on not just unchangeable genes, but also the "epigenetics" of unlocked traits affected by our choices. Eve's decisions during the spiritual Fall affected her DNA.

K-type humans build civilizations. Competition leads them to prove their worth to the community and to excel. They protect their families from threats and invest in their children at great personal sacrifice. They are willing to provide aid and charity to the deserving poor who have encountered a tragedy.

While they are conservatives who value economic freedom, they on average contribute more to charity. They have strong honor codes.

R-type humans avoid competition. Their motto is "make love, not war." They are opportunistic exploiters and prefer government transfers of resources including "sex subsidies" in which the government incentivizes free sex with payments to pregnant women with no committed husband. They hate ostracism because they don't want standards that would reduce the availability of sex partners and therefore the continuation of their genes.

"R" gene sets proliferate with unstable, stressful environments, especially with absent fathers and fathers or mothers who parent abusively or even just emotionally, creating an unstable environment. With less or chaotic parental investment the children reach puberty at earlier ages in order to reproduce in an unstable environment. R-types prefer sexual freedom to economic freedom, desiring more government aid and sex education that minimizes the risks of uncommitted sex and lowers standards.

Lucifer was an "r-strategist" who advocated fulfilling immediate desires rather than thinking and preparing for the future. This has led to the epigenetics or the lineage of "satan" that True Father denounced so many times. Fortunately, if someone from a satanic lineage encounters Christ, learning new ways of thinking and living, it is possible to change one's epigenetics to God's lineage, from a Free Sex to an Absolute Sex lifestyle. Rev. Hyung Jin Moon Will Conduct a Ceremony for the Liberation of 210 Generations of Ancestors

This ceremony will be held on December 6, 2015 at Sanctuary Church, Newfoundland, PA. On September 13, 2015, during his Sunday sermon, Rev. Hyung Jin Moon declared that he will conduct a ceremony for the liberation of 210 generations of ancestors for any individuals requesting that. Pastor Hyung Jin Moon also explained that all liberations conducted while True Father (Rev. Sun Myung Moon) was alive are considered valid and that those conducted after his father's passing were invalid.

Those who were blessed after Father's Seonghwa or who received Holy Wine at Foundation Day would need to receive the Blessing to Return to True Father's Authority in order to have their ancestors liberated.

Jackie Perkins, Sanctuary Coordinator-Iowa

Iowa- Jackie Perkins- I personally think that people are NOT informed. This is VERY serious and now I know what the Bible meant by one will be sleeping the other will be picked. No one I have talked to can deny that TF passed it on to HJN they tell me that a mother has a right to change whatever she wants if she sees fit. The mind is bulging that no one is willing to listen, reason or just find the facts they want to continue waiting for information from the headquarters but there is no specific source of headquarters. For all I know some one may be giving out directions and using TMs name...

My desire is unity, not hate. My desire is not pointing fingers but using correct information. My desire is not to blame but to love unconditionally and delete Satan out of our way. I can see how dark it gets like a blind man leading another. Like I mentioned the frustration of information being so obvious yet people are so much in denial.

Rev. Thelma Lumbus, Sanctuary Coordinator-Ohio

Today, the sermon was well received. A couple of members expressed their concerns regarding the changes to True Father's words. I believe they too have struggles with the direction of the leadership. I made it clear my decision was not made overnight but through prayer, spiritual guidance, dreams, talking with others, listening to Hyung Jin Nim Moon, and reading from True Father's eight textbooks. In True Father's words, he says he has the master key, there is only one Messiah, not two. Hyung Jin Nim is True Father's Heir, successor, and the one authorized to give the blessing. True Mother claiming to be the subject and not the object was the tipping point. The betrayal pierced my heart more than True Father's ascension. Later I made an official announcement that my membership is with the Sanctuary Church. In any case, the decision I made to connect with the Sanctuary Church is the right one. Blessings. ## Unification Sanctuary Testimonies 11/15/2015

Christine Edamatsu, Sanctuary Supporter-NJ testimony

I received a Facebook message from a close friend from FFWP. She asked me if I have heard or seen a mutual friend, and that she's concerned that he may be joining Sanctuary church. I then replied, saying " You should not be concerned. Actually I'm a member of Sanctuary Church." Of course, she was shocked and asked me "Isn't Sanctuary church very far away?" I said to her: "Yes. some people have asked me that too, but I don't mind the driving. In fact, we drove cross country to CA and back this past summer, so no problem for me."

In my mind I know I'm losing another friend, but it doesn't matter. I should not be afraid to tell people where I stand. I have to divide myself this way. As I went on my day driving to Clifton to pick up my son from guitar lesson, tears just start pouring in that I don't know where it came from. I tried to tell myself that I have to calm down and focus on driving. I put my sunglasses on so that I won't startle the children, who were in the backseat. I made it home safely, while trying to control my tears.

Throughout the day, I could not stop crying. At some point, I had to lock myself in my bedroom and let out a loud wail. I cried like I never cried before. I was shivering and my body was shaking involuntarily. In my mind, I prayed: "O Heavenly Father, O my dearest T.F., Abonim, I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry....This pain...I can't imagine what you're feeling...The anguish, pain, betrayal, deceit. You must feel like you're all alone. The people who are closest to you have betrayed you. I'm so sorry you had to go through this. How much suffering can a man endure, even after he passed? When does it end?" I continue to cry aloud, while covering my mouth with my hand so that the children couldn't hear me from the next room.
