The Universal Peace Federation in Angola, maintains friendly relations with numerous organizations and churches. So it was on November 6, 2022, in a form of courtesy and brotherhood a delegation of the UPF Angola, including Rev. Kinambuta Sambu Pedro - President of FFWPU, Dr. Manuel Adão Domingos - Chairman of UPF and Benvindo Wansung Pelani - Secretary General of UPF decided to attend a Sunday service at the Tocoist Church whose founder was one of the great African and Central African prophets, the prophet "Simão Gonçalves Toco" and the current leader of the Tocoist Church is the Bishop Dom Afonso Nunes and is an Ambassador of Peace by the Universal Peace Federation International.

The delegation of the Universal Peace Federation in Angola, arrived at the Tocoist Church at 10:00 a.m. and participated in the whole service of the Tocoist Church, where they were welcomed by the community and Bishop Dom Afonso Nunes, thanked the presence of the delegation of the Federation for Universal Peace in Angola during the service.

After the service, Bishop Dom Afonso Nunes, invited the delegation to his residence in the church, where he offered a lunch and after hours of fellowship where once again they talked about the work promoted by UPF regarding the fight against the growing crisis of values in our society and UPF-Angola, hopes to have Bishop Dom Afonso Nunes and the Tocoist Church always as the main partner in the fight against anti-values and character education programs. At the end of the meeting, Bishop Dom Afonso Nunes thanked the visit of the Universal Peace Federation to the church and wished they could come more often.

Bishop Afonso Nunes, shared an experience in which 3 days before the visit of the UPF-Angola delegation, he was thinking but, why wasn't he already visited by the UPF-Angola delegation? Then the leader considered the presence of the delegation as a spiritual answer to his thought and prayer. Which shows that we are united not only physically, but spiritually.
