Fritz Piepenburg, served as a foreign missionary to Yemen for 21 years.

He spoke fluent Arabic and could teach the Divine Principle in Arabic.

Fritz was also part of the trinity national leadership to Germany for many years.

I had the honor to work with Fritz in Yemen for one year in the 80's.

In April of 1975 more than 100 German missionaries left Germany for their assigned mission country, together with missionaries from Japan and America.
