

A Unificationist's Creed (Latest Rewrite)

Something I first wrote (and have rewritten several times) in 2005 or so (possibly earlier). I hereby leave it to any and all who may find it helpful in ministry or simply, possibly meaningful. It is an (inspired or creative) take on the Apostles' Creed.

God bless!

A Unificationist's Creed

I believe in the Heavenly Parent (God), the Father and Mother eternally loving, the Creator(s) of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ,

The first true Son, our Lord: who was conceived through a great plan known as "the restoration of the original blood lineage," after The Fall (or falling away) of the first human ancestors,

Born of his mother Mary and a father unknown (by most) suffered under the people and circumstances of his times; was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he arose from the dead;

He was welcomed home by Heavenly Parent; his true Bride could not be found while he was yet in his physical body,

Hence, her precursor, the Holy Spirit was sent to inspire and invigorate the faithful until the appointed time; together they sit at the right hand of the Heavenly Parent, the Father and Mother, awaiting the next One(s) who are to come

Who will lead all to the "Marriage Feast of the Lamb" (Holy Blessing) whence true judgment shall come - for both the living and the dead.

I believe in True Love and a holy catholic world full of magnificent uniqueness and possibilities, the communion of all Heavenly Parent God's children, the end of sin, the resurrection of all souls through the principles of returning resurrection and life eternal within the Four Great Realms of the Heart.
