K. Ishii and S. Honda sharing about CARP to C. Gonzalez.

Hola todos~!

This is the Peru team, with another update from this last week!

On Monday, February 11, a new guest of our American Missionary member finished receiving all the lectures on the Divine Principle, given to him by our witnessing team members, Ricardo, Fernando, and Dokhwa Miraval! The guest, Christofer Gonzalez, resonated with the information and words that were shared to him, and instantly decided he wanted to continue studying Principle.

On Thursday, February 14, C. Gonzalez finished reading through the whole Divine Principle book, staying with us for three whole days to finish it. He also received videos on the life course of our founders, Rev. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon. He shared about how he felt their hearts of sacrifice and investments when he talked with our leader, D. Miraval afterwards.

On Saturday, February 16, C. Gonzalez came to stay at the CARP center with us! We welcomed him with a miniature surprise celebration upon his arrival, and he is currently being introduced to the lifestyle we practice here at CARP - regular studying and application of the principles we learn through the various responsibilities we share within the center. He will be continuing his studies with the other full-time CARP members, while receiving guidance from D. Miraval. We are super excited to be with him!

On Tuesday and Wednesday, we continued our witnessing and outreach efforts, inviting college students and young adults to attend short lectures and presentations on the CARP program, and the values and principles we study, practice, and share with the people around us.

It's been a busy week, but we're looking forward to going into the next one with even stronger determinations than the last!
