One Korea Global Campaign: Inspiring Unity and Hope

Highlights from Korea's 80th National Liberation Day

Korean Broadcasting System (KBS), Korea's oldest and most influential national network, served as a major partner in the August events commemorating the 80th Anniversary Celebrations. In addition to broadcasting the event live, KBS aired multiple re-runs, allowing viewers across Korea to engage with and celebrate this historic occasion.

Recently, a one-hour special was featured on KBSN, a leading national cable network renowned for its extensive coverage of cultural and public events. This special on the Korean Dream Hangang Festa 2025 highlights the growing national and international recognition of the Korean Dream movement and its inspiring message of unity and hope.

We invite you to watch the KBSN special and join us in keeping the spirit alive as we continue working toward a free and united Korea.
