

Happiest of Mother's Days for this Mother's Day 2020!

Dear wonderful mothers, and mothers to be,

Happiest of Mother's Days for this Mother's Day 2020!

We all will never forget this day that we commemorate during the global Covid-19 pandemic, as most of us cannot be with our mothers in person on that day, give her flowers and a big hug or take her out for a celebratory meal.

However, for those of us who live with our mothers, this is a great opportunity for husbands and children to do the cooking and uplift their "queen" of the house, letting her rest for a day.

On a deeper note, I would also like to take a moment on this day to think of and honor the Mothers of America, mothers of all races and backgrounds who have quietly sacrificed for their families, their communities and for this nation, and upon whose shoulders we stand today! Is it not those mothers who have knit the fabric of our nation?

There is no doubt that mothers are the "salt of the earth" and the "hope of humanity," as Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon said in one of her speeches, as a mother's heart is deeper than the ocean and has the capacity to embrace everyone. Mothers are and have been the bedrock of humanity, the first educators, nurturers, and compass of our conscience. And don't we need their smile and touch and encouragement throughout all of our lives? On this day, therefore, let us reflect on the profound role of a mother who cares not only for her own children but for the children of the world as we listen to this song: "Mother of Mine," sung by the Little Angels Folk Ballet of Korea.

We all can be mothers to others, whether we have children of our own or not, as we all have an innate God-given gift of caring and sharing, as is demonstrated even by little girls who deeply care for her dolls or doggies.

So from all of us to you: Have a most special Mothers Day 2020!
