Dear friends,

This is a reminder for our upcoming National Weekly Prayer call, which is a continuation of a previous prayer effort of our WFWP national chairwomen. It is also an initiative toward bringing healing and positive change to our hurting nation.

We invite you to join in this universal prayer effort as we will open the call with a prayer and read two paragraphs on page 254 from the memoir of WFWP Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, entitled “Mother of Peace: And God Shall Wipe Away All Tears from Their Eyes.” Then we will have brief reflections from participants, ending with prayer and remarks from WFWP USA President Angelika Selle. This will take no longer than 20 minutes, and we have also attached the paragraphs we will be reading from tomorrow (see below).

We trust that you will come away inspired and enriched by participating in the national prayer for peace.

With warm regards,
Angelika Selle

Reading for Saturday, June 27, 2020:

"Until now, neither men nor women have known the true value of womanhood. As a result, men have not approached women with authentic appreciation. To break that mold, women in modern times have campaigned to advance their rights and achieve liberation from past restrictions. They have, for the most part, taken a position of complaint against men and channeled their energy into political movements to change laws. With a different perspective, I launched the Women's Federation for World Peace as a movement to awaken women to their true value and help them embrace men and develop themselves in partnership with men.

To be a clear mirror that reflects this age, each woman first needs to be clear and pure within herself. Each needs to find the indomitable power within that is necessary to overcome self-centeredness. She needs to become a true daughter who attends her parents with filial piety, and a true wife who completes her husband with fidelity and devotion. Moreover, she needs to become a true mother who raises her sons and daughters with love and dedication. She needs to form a family of true love that attends God. God will raise up such true women as leaders on the path to world peace."
