Dear women, mothers and ladies of peace,

Greetings in this Fall season and season of Harvest!

Upon request, WFWP USA will be restarting up our National Prayer and Study calls "Help Turn the Tide," which we had conducted over the summer, having impacted and transformed those who participated and others beyond!

Get ready to join us this coming Saturday, October 10, 2020 at 1pm EST, and gather every other week for the next 8 weeks, on every 1st and 3rd Saturday of the month, ending on January 16, 2021!

As in our previous prayer calls we will be using texts and speeches from Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, our Founder, as a source of inspiration and discussion including her recently published Memoirs entitled: "Mother of Peace - And God shall wipe away their tears."

Beginning with an opening prayer and brief spiritual reading, we will hear reflections and insights from participants and close with prayer and comments from WFWP USA President Angelika Selle.

We know without a doubt that when women and mothers come together in prayer, things change within us and around us! As a non-political/partisan global organization, we affirm our Creator and spirituality as a prerequisite for positive change for hope and healing, and for TURNING THE TIDE of humanity for the better.

Inviting women and mothers of all races, faith traditions and conscience to come together in this "Women Prayer Circle of Peace and Healing for America."

Looking forward!
