Dear Women Peace Leaders and Women of Faith,

Happy Women's History Month 2021!

Thank you for those who joined our Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle for Peace and Healing on Saturday, February 27th. This particular session was especially, rich and moving as participants shared about their deeper insights and realization in their roles of women based on the reading below, taken from Mother of Peace Memoir. Please, enjoy and share with other women, which is especially appropriate in this Women's History Month!! And enjoy!

The recording of the Prayer Circle is attached.

The next Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle will be on Saturday, March 13, 2021 at 1 pm.

Sincerely in prayer,
Angelika Selle and Rev. Dr. Linda Nishikawa

Reading for Saturday, February 27, 2021 from Mother of Peace, p. 146 (or p. 158):

“My husband once called me a High Priest. He said that in God's dispensation until this era, men were the high priests, but we are entering the age of the wife, and women need to carry out the priestly ministry. It is women whom our Heavenly Parent is calling to serve as the mediators of forgiving, purifying and regenerating grace to all humanity.”
