Dear WFWP USA Friends:

What is International Women's Day all about?

Celebrating women, their history, their invaluable contributions and accomplishments, their stories, supporting their issues and charities, and so much more!

It is indeed wonderful that, in 1987, March was declared Women's History Month and March 8th as International Women's Day. We acknowledge one woman, Mrs. Molly Murphy McGregor, who is the co-founder of the National Women's History Project, which contributed to the creation of Women's History Month!

In the end, when all is said and done, I believe that what we women truly long for and are looking for is to be respected, appreciated and "seen" for who we are, in terms of both our inner and outer qualities.

We are sharing with you 9 inspiring Women's History Month quotes for your upliftment (see below), and to let you know how precious and valuable you are, just by being YOU!

Celebrate you, the divine in you, the beauty and richness in you, and share lots of good laughs with other women during this month!

Get ready also because we are needed now more than ever to bring balance back to the planet and bring joy and love to families and neighborhoods. We can offer our creative and innovative ideas during these times of change, charting new territory for a better future.

Happy March, and happy "marching forward"!

Angelika Selle
