

WFWP USA: Central America/Caribbean Webinar with First Ladies Association

Angelika Selle
March 26, 2021

UNIVERSAL PEACE FEDERATION
International Association of First Ladies for Peace
The Global Role of Women's Contributions to Peace and Development

Among other projects, IAFLP supports the Peaceful Reunification of North and South Korea

Central America and the Caribbean, March, 27th, 2021

DR. CHARLES S. YANG Chairman of the Universal Peace Federation Central America &amp; Caribbean. Chair of the Middle East Peace Initiative and Director of the North East Asia Peace Initiative. He is a Director of the Washington Times Foundation.		DR. MRS. JULIA MOON Dr. Moon is President of the Women's Federation for World Peace International. An internationally renowned ballerina, she is also the chairperson of the Universal Culture Foundation, coordinating the operations of the Universal Art Center, the Universal Ballet Academy, the Kirov Academy of Ballet in Washington, D.C. and Korea. KOREA
H.E. MRS. SYBILENE PATRICIA MINNIS First Lady of Bahamas. Mrs. Minnis holds an earned Bachelor of Science (BSc.) degree in Biology from the prestigious Bethune Cookman University. As Chairwoman of SCLAN, Mrs. Minnis is also committed to working with the First Ladies and Spouses of Heads of Government of the Caribbean Community to champion the CariWaC initiative. BAHAMAS		H.E. MRS. KIM SIMPLIS BARROW First Lady (2008 - 2020). Mrs. Barrow is a Belizean activist for women and children's rights and development, a philanthropist. In 2008 Kim was appointed Special Envoy for Women and Children in Belize. She served in this capacity and lent forceful advocacy on behalf of women, children and adolescents with a particular focus on gender equality. BELIZE
H.E. MRS. REEMA HARRYSINGH CARMONA First Lady (2013-2018). Mrs. Carmona is an Economist and strong advocate for women and youth empowerment, the fight against child marriage and adolescent pregnancy. She was one of five First Ladies awarded the Global Leadership Impact Award at the International Conference on Gender &amp; Sustainability, on the occasion of the 72nd Session of the United Nations General Assembly. TRINIDAD &amp; TOBAGO		H.E. MRS. PATRICIA MARROQUÍN DE MORALES First Lady (2016-2020), in the era of mass migration, she developed her heart focused on supporting migrants with programs such as: "For the Love of Migrants"; and "Migrant Family Units". GUATEMALA
MRS. IROSHKA ELVIR DE NASRALLA Mrs. Nasralla has a Degree in Finance; Co-Founder of the SALVADOR Party of Honduras, 2018; General Coordinator of the Youth Secretariat of the SALVADOR Party of Honduras; Miss Honduras 2015, and Agent of Change of the Friedrich Ebert Foundation, 2015. HONDURAS		MRS. BLESSIE DHAKAL Mrs. Dhakal is the International Coordinator of International Association of First Ladies for Peace (IAFLP). Ms. Dhakal is a Filipino-Nepalese entrepreneur and is married to a Nepalese politician, Hon. Ek Nath Dhakal. She is the founding president of Nepalese Filipino Association and serves as the President of WFPW Nepal. PHILIPPINES

Dear esteemed supporters and friends,

We are excited to share with you an opportunity to hear from First Ladies and women leaders across Central America and the Caribbean, happening tomorrow!

The International Association of First Ladies for Peace (IAFLP) in collaboration with Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) International will be hosting the webinar tomorrow, March 27th, at 7:00 PM EDT.

Hear from WFWP International President Dr. Julia Moon and First Ladies from Central America and the Caribbean on "The Global Role of Women's Contributions to Peace and Development." To join this program, register at the link below.

- Women's Federation for World Peace USA

Register Here