

Women's Federation for World Peace

For 20 years, we have rolled up our sleeves, stood side by side, and worked together to elevate the experience of being a woman in the world today. Whether it was starting schools for young girls, micro-loans for women entrepreneurs, teaching mothers health and literacy, or crossing a bridge as an expression of our commitment to reconciliation and dialogue, we did it in partnership.

With the many years behind us and many more to come, we find ourselves at a turning point.
