Dear friends and women of peace,

Is there anything more moving and rewarding than when your son or daughter tells you on Mother's Day: "Mommy, I really love you! You are the best mom in the world!"? And is there anything more profound to remember than what your mother and grandmothers have taught you, shared with you, and given you while you were growing up?

Motherhood is indeed one of the most difficult roles our Creator has bestowed on us -- yet it is also the most precious that we women can ever have! And when mothers and other women come together, heart to heart, arm in arm, I believe we all together can make a big difference in creating a better environment for peace and happiness for our families, children, and future generations.

Please enjoy watching this special edition of a TV show for the Filipino community, called "Buhay, Buhay" ("Life, Yes Life"), hosted by Rhia Luz, our WFWP Chairwoman in Arizona. In the video, mothers and daughters share warm sentiments from their hearts.

On this Mother's Day 2019, we wish all mothers, grandmothers, and mothers-to-be a most wonderful time with your families and an especially meaningful time together with your daughters and daughters-in-law!

With warm wishes,
