

Bridging religious and cultural divides - Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon at MSG

Hugh Spurgin
July 13, 2017

Dr. Hugh Spurgin looks forward to seeing UTS alumni and friends at Madison Square Garden on Saturday, July 15.

On July 15, 2017, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, the co-founder of Unification Theological Seminary, will deliver a message of hope: Peace Starts With Me.

In a time when the nation is engulfed in disunity, she reminds us that we are greater than our differences. She encourages us to come together as brothers and sisters to take a step in unison toward peace. Solutions to a divided culture begin with the quiet revolution inside each and every one of us.

And to top it all off, Grammy award-winning Gospel singers Hezekiah Walker and Yolanda Adams will sing in celebration of love and peace, and for God.

Plus a 2,000 voice choir and praise dancers.

"It is now time for us to begin a new cultural revolution of heart."

The doors to Madison Square Garden will be opening at 2:00 PM on July 15

The event is expected to go until approx. 5:00PM.

The doors to the entrance of Madison Square Garden are located on 32nd St and 7th Ave in New York, NY.
