The YAYAM Bulletin

Hey, YAYAM family! Thanks for checking out the YAYAM Bulletin Board!

We have several events coming up that many of you may be interested in. Please read through and follow the links for additional details! All events have deadlines within the week!

Don't forget to follow YAYAM on social media for the most recent updates and hot-off-the-press news. Follow us below:

Devoted Online

"Becoming the One Before Finding the One"

For ages 16-21 and their parents

Registration Deadline: Sunday, Feb. 7th

The best way to prepare for the matching & Blessing is to grow together as a family. This program is based on the level 1 Blessing workshop and modified to a family small group curriculum over the course of 7 weeks. All the team leaders will also be Blessed so you'll be able to dig deep in our conversations and education. Sign up by February 7th and find more details here! You don't want to miss it!

Faith & Focus

Half-Day Young Adult Retreat

For all young adults ages 18-40 on Saturday, February 6th

Join the "Faith & Focus" retreat this Saturday. It will be a time for young adults to connect more deeply, and revitalize and refresh for the new year with new insights. The first session, "Bringing Your Faith into Practice," will feature two topics that will be very relevant to many of our lives: Mental & Spiritual Health During a Pandemic, and The Head Wing Approach to Our Political Divide. The second session will dive deeper into "Bringing Your Faith into Focus." How can we find God when the world seems so wrong? By the way, it's FREE with a suggested donation! We can't wait to see you there:

Pyeongae Scholarship

For undergrad students, graduate students, and high schoolers who are committed to go to Sun Moon University

Deadline: Friday, Feb. 5th

We are happy to announce that applications for the 2021 Pyeongae Scholarship are officially open! The Pyeongae Scholarship started when True Mother sold True Parents' helicopter in order to establish a fund that can raise future leaders. It awards US and Canadian students who live a public lifestyle by contributing back to their community (Sunday School, church, youth ministry, CARP, etc), and hopes to enable public-minded leaders for the future. Affiliated Events

While these events are not hosted by YAYAM, we thought you might be interested!

Giving for Good Event

What are you doing on Feb. 6 from 5-6 PM (EST)? Join us in Giving for Good's Virtual Event with Sun Jin Nim! We'll be featuring guest speakers all the way from Kenya and the Philippines, who have found environmental-friendly methods to sustain their community's livelihoods. You may also be one of the 21 lucky winners who get Hawaii's Kona coffee delivered to your door! Admission is $20 and 100% of all funds will benefit WFWPI, a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization, to specifically support UN SDG 13 on Climate Action, a select group of WFWPI humanitarian projects and the work related to the WFWPI UN Office.

NFS Unity Dance

We're updating the National Family Service Unity (Tongil) Dance, and we've got an opportunity for you to wish our True Parents a Happy Birthday! You can send a video saying "Happy Birthday" or in Korean, "생일 축하합니다" (Saeng-Il Chook-Ah Hahm-Nee-Dah), or a clip of some of your dance moves over the Unity song (10 seconds to 1 minute long). You can also do both! By doing so, you're eligible for our raffle for a $20 Amazon gift card! This is for all ages young or old and your family is welcome to do this together as well.

Send your submission to music@unification.org by FEB 7th!

Don't forget to periodically check YAYAM Online, where we'll be posting all the online events and resources available!
